Rabbi Exposes Immunity Trick

Ach Tries to Get Burns on Stand

ANARCHISTS ARE TO BE ROUNDED UP

More Than Thirty of Noted Ones to Be Arrested.

Denver Church Where the Priest Was Killed Is Re-blessed.

Band of Assassins Traced From Italy to Various Parts of the United States.

(By Associated Press)

DENVER Colo Feb 25—In the reblessing of St Elizabeth's Church yesterday afternoon rendered necessary by the desecration at the altar on Sunday of Father Leo by Giuseppe Allo not only were prayers raised for the purification of the temple and the protection of the edifice from any further desecration but supplication was also made on behalf of the assassin that he might be caused to repent of his rash deed

This most impressive ceremony was witnessed by but few people Father Henry V Phillips chancellor of the Denver diocese performed the solemn rite having been delegated to do so by Bishop Matz who is in Los Angeles

The ceremony consumed more than an hour and at its conclusion Father Phillips announced that St Elizabeth's would again be open for service

Was Marked Man.

Most of the priests of the Catholic church in this city believe that Father Leo Heinrichs who was murdered by Giuseppe Allo an Italian anarchist while giving communion in St Elizabeth's Church here Sunday morning last was a marked man from the time he arrived in town last August or even before that he must have incurred the enmity of the anarchists there and that a plot was laid to kill him perhaps prior to the arrival of Father Paterson but that the machine of the reds failed to get into working order until Allo carried out his deadly scheme

It transpires that a woman who witnessed the tragedy Sunday told a prominent Catholic priest yesterday that two weeks ago during an early mass she saw a well appearing man one of whom she believes was the assassin standing in the aisle of St Elizabeth's church They were conversing in a low tone but as she looked at the men point to two pieces who were in the sanctuary

the priests one of whom was Father Leo were separated several feet and the man who did the pointing directed his finger toward Father Leo and remarked in a low tone That is the man

The woman thought it odd at the two men should hold a conversation together with the rather boisterous appearance of the men made a deep impression upon her When she saw the assassin running down the aisle Sunday she declares she immediately recognized him as the man to whom Father Leo had been pointed out

The police are working out the conspiracy theory and hunting for two strange men thought to have been accomplices of Allo Although the authorities have found nothing to indicate that Michael Brittetti roommate of the anarchist knew anything of the murderer's intentions he is being held.

Body Lying in State.

The body of the murdered priest will lie in state in the sanctuary of St Elizabeth's from 10 o'clock this morning until midnight when all will be given opportunity to view the remains Public funeral services will be held Wednesday

Interment will take place in the private cemetery of the Franciscan Brotherhood at Paterson N J

Through the efforts of Chief of Police

SELECTING A JURY IN LIBEL SUIT OF TEVIS VS. BULLETIN

"Gum Shoe" Burns and Others Present

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO Feb 25—The W F Tevis libel suit against the Bulletin Fremont Older and R A Crothers opened this morning in Judge Dunne's court room Judge Morris T Dooling of San Benito county presiding in the case The selection of the jurors was immediately begun

The lawyers present for the defendants were Attorney Thomas Hickey E Cullinan Roche M I Sullivan and Hiram Johnson

Assistant District Attorney Wilmam Hoff Cook conducted the prosecution W F Tevis not being represented by personal counsel

Former Mayor James B Phelan was present during the trial and before the opening Detective W J Burns entered and a short whispered conference was held among Burns Phelan and Attorneys Hickey and Cullinan Burns left before the trial opened

The First Talesman

John Holmes residing at 3221 Twenty-first street and a trans continental freight agent was the first trial juror called Holmes had understood that Fremont Older had had something to do with the publication of an article in McClure's which criticized the religious leaders of San Francisco with reference to the graft cases and admitted bias in a way

Attorney Roche for the defense challenged Holmes after he said If I made up my mind that Older had anything to do with the article in McClure's I would be biased as to that he would not stoop to publish such an article

The court allowed the challenge

The trial jurors were asked if they knew Schmitz Ruef Marsten Madsen E P E Tevis James D Phelan Rudolph Spreckels W J Burns Patrick Calhoun and P L Ford

Cashed Ruef's Checks.

Martin Hink a grocer, with business at 214 Twenty third street declared he was a firm believer in municipal ownership of the water supply a question which coopel up in various forms for all trial jurors to answer He did not know personally any of the various men mentioned above although he had cashed some of Ruef's checks a few years ago He said he got his money Also Calhoun had paid a bill which he had sent him Hink was asked if he had any acquaintance with bank officials and said he knew those of the Bank of San Francisco

The questioning of Hink was dropped while H Trost a contractor, with business at Twenty-sixth and Howard streets was questioned Trost said he would not be prejudiced against the defendant if he understood Phelan had an interest in the Bulletin He had formed an opinion from reading newspaper articles Trost said

Must Prove Article.

Attorneys Cook and Roche had an argument as to whether the prosecution had to prove the article untrue or the defense prove the article Roche said the prosecution would in a way, but Judge Dooling decided with Cook that it was up to the defense to prove the article true Trost took a great interest in the Bulletin article he said and read all articles on municipal water supply as he believed in city ownership

R A Crothers and Fremont Older were both present at the trial and paid great attention to the questioning of the jurors

Joseph I Gassman a retired manufacturer of photo mountings followed Trost Ruef, he said was his father's attorney about twelve years ago but Gassman was not personally or politically acquainted with the ex-boss Gassman was passed along with Hink and Trost.

Did Not Know Schmitz.

Louis Schmidt retired and residing at 1809 Devisadero street under questioning from Attorney Roche stated he did not know ex Mayor Schmitz Ruef or officials of the Kern County Land Company or of the United Railroads He stated that because the Bulletin was behind the graft prosecution would not prejudice him against the defendants He was passed

Richard W Davis residing at 116 Walnut street and engaged in the yeast business was passed

Isaac Penny a contractor of 412 O'Farrell street stated he had no bias against Tevis but he had expended a large sum of money Penny said he would rather have private interests control water works than to have the city own them He was passed

RABBI BERNARD KAPLAN, WHOSE EXPOSURE OF THE COERCIVE METHODS OF THE GRAFT PROSECUTION, HAS STIRRED THEM TO THE MAKING OF EXPLANATORY AFFIDAVITS.

COURT RULES AGAINST HIM

Prosecution Not Ready With Affidavits—Rabbi Nieto to Make One.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)

SAN FRANCISCO Feb 25—The case of Abraham Ruef charged with the bribing of Ex Supervisor Jennings Phillips for the purpose of inducing him to vote for the overhead trolley franchise was resumed this morning before Judge Lawlor It had been announced that affidavits in reply to those filed by Ruef and Rabbi Kaplan would be filed by District Attorney Langdon Rudolph Spreckels and Detective Burns But before that matter was reached several subsidiary matters were touched upon among them the matter of the proposed affidavit of Rabbi Nieto who had made a statement regarding the midnight meeting at which the promise of immunity from prosecution was made to Ruef

After a desultory discussion the matter of filing the Heney Langdon Burns and Spreckels affidavits was continued until Thursday at 10 o'clock

Rabbi Nieto in Court.

It was declared that the Rabbi had refused to sign the affidavit on the ground that he did not wish to appear as a person interested in the case As a result of the discussion the Rabbi announced through his counsel Attorney Wise that he had withdrawn his objections to signing the affidavit

The attendance was small The prosecution was represented by District Attorney Langdon and Assistant District Attorneys Heney and O'Gara The defendant was represented by Attorneys Ach and Murphy Rudolph Spreckels witnessed the proceedings from a seat near the counsel for the prosecution

Dr Nieto said Ach did not wish to put in a voluntary appearance in the case The doctor however was in court with his attorneys

Mr Heney said that he joined in the request that Dr Nieto make an affidavit

Withdraws Objections

Attorney Wise representing Dr Nieto said he was simply acting in a friendly manner for the doctor One of the members of the counsel for the defense had he said libeled him in the court at the last session during the speaker's absence After having heard what he supposed to be the opinion of the court in the premises he said it would not be proper for Dr Nieto to refrain from making an affidavit and he withdrew all objections that he had made to the doctor's making such a statement and that criticism of him could be made for complying with this formality

In response to a question by Attorney Ach Wise said that he had made a few corrections in the statement of Rabbi Nieto which had in part already been published

The court said that the formal reading of the affidavit could be waived until it had been completed and signed and that then a copy of it could be served on the defendant

Ach Questions Heney

Mr Ach then questioned Attorney Heney as to the facts regarding the appearance of Mr Ruef before the grand jury for the purpose of determining when the defendant had entered and left the meeting place and whether or not Ruef's appearance before that body had been voluntary or otherwise

Heney's answers were not satisfactory the attorney insisting that the questions should be put in the form of an affidavit

District Attorney Langdon was also questioned to the same effect

Ach then called for Detective Burns to take the stand

Heney objected on the grounds that Burns was an adverse party in the case and could not give evidence

The court said he would not hear oral testimony at that time

Ach took an exception

Ach then said it was proposed to question in the same manner as it would have questioned Burns Messrs Rudolph Spreckels Attorney Cobb District Attorney Langdon J L Gallagher and Supervisor Andrew J Wilson

The exception was recorded

Defense Not Served.

had not been served with the affidavits of the prosecution which had been promised

Mr Heney said he had been so busy with personal and professional duties that he had not been able to prepare the affidavits which were to have been filed today He asked until Thursday to do so

Ach requested that the affidavits be served on the defense on that day and that the defendant be allowed until the following day (Friday) in which to reply The court agreed to this proposition

Ach then suggested that Mr Heney secure from Oliver the foreman of the late grand jury all the facts which he could obtain from that gentleman regarding Mr Ruef's appearance before the grand jury Heney said that he would do so

The affidavit of Dr Nieto was then filed without reading

The court then adjourned until Thursday morning

Meeting Prosecutors.

During the month of April 1907 and all of April 1907 while I was in the City and County of San Francisco which was until about the end of April Abraham Ruef was on trial in department number 8 of the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco on the charge of extortion that the said trial was being conducted at the Temple Israel at which congregation at said time and for many years previous thereto my duties called me to the said temple practically every day while the said trial was on I have known Abraham Ruef personally for many years at that time I was personally acquainted with William J Burns and knew him to be interested in the prosecution and acting as one of the agents for the district attorney in the matter of the prosecution of the then so called Graft cases On day about April 1907 while the said trial of Abraham Ruef was proceeding I met a friend in the street who told me that practically all of the Board of Supervisors had met the prosecution and had told them all that they knew about graft in San Francisco and had confessed and that the prosecution was anxious to have Mr Ruef tell all he knew about graft in San Francisco I missed at that time was interested as I then of the City and County of San Francisco on the disclosure which was to be announced and on the same day I met Mr W J Burns at my temple where I had gone on my usual business and had conversation with him at time in which the matter of the Supervisors coming through was mentioned and I advised him that I had heard that the prosecution desired Mr Ruef to tell all that he knew and I asked him whether he desired that I should interview Mr Ruef about it He answered in the affirmative and said We would be very glad if you would do so

Agree to Conference

During this conversation between Mr Burns and myself Mr Ruef who was in the custody of William J Biggy, an officer was passing and I stopped Mr Ruef in the presence of Mr Burns and asked him whether he would like me to call and see him to which Mr. Ruef responded he would be glad to see me if these people—pointing to Burns—had no objection Mr Burns responded there was never any objection to the doctor visiting you at any time

The same evening I called upon Mr Ruef at the place where he was detained by the officers on Fillmore street near Green and during the conversation talked to Mr Ruef generally about his case talked to him about what the prosecution wanted, and was told by Mr Ruef that he had been

HAYES AND KAHN DEMAND 'COMPLETE EXCLUSION LAW OF ALL THE ASIATIC RACES

WASHINGTON Feb 25—Representatives Hayes and Representative Kahn of California today argued before the house committee on foreign affairs in favor of the bill to regulate the coming into and residence within the United States of Chinese Japanese Koreans Hindoos and others of the Mongolian or Asiatic races They said the only way to effectively stop the immigration of these people is by an absolute prohibition enactment

They insisted that the arts of diplomacy never would correct the evil They agreed with Foreign Minister Hayashi of Japan that the trouble lay with the immigration companies who they said have behind them vast sums of money with which to carry on their work

MURDER MYSTERIES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Women the Victims, One of Malpractice, the Other Slain for Her Money.

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO Feb 25—An element of mystery surrounds the death of a Miss Avers of 187 California street which occurred in the Scobie Hospital at 2 o'clock this morning

Miss Avers who was 22 years of age was taken very ill on Saturday last and called in Dr R A Buchanan of 1178 Eddy street She told him that she had taken some pills prescribed by a druggist whose name she did not give and that these had made her feel worse rather than better

The surgeon decided on an operation and it was performed on Sunday morning The immediate cause of the girl's death was peritonitis but it is thought it had resulted from criminal practice

Dr Clark who performed the autopsy today at the morgue gave it as his opinion that there was something suspicious about the case He was however unable to tell what had been done prior to the operation performed by Dr Buchanan

The police are working on the theory that a powerful drug was administered to the girl and every effort will be made to locate the druggist

Suspect Foul Play.

The police have begun an investigation into the death of Miss Horona Murphy, whose body was found at Harbor View early yesterday morning and turned over to the morgue authorities

The investigation grows from information furnished the coroner by John P Murphy the dead woman's brother who called at the morgue this morning and charged that his sister had met with foul play He states that she had between $90 and $100 saved up which had not been banked and was to have gone to Stockton Sunday night to pay some taxes

He points to the fact that no deposits had been made in the Hibernia Bank since 1906 and that as Miss Murphy has been working continually since then she has saved up a considerable sum He declares that she was drugged and her body thrown into the water and anxious await the result of the city chemist's analysis of the contents of the dead woman's stomach

Theory Borne Out

Murphy's theory is borne out by the statement of Mrs McIlheny of 1077 Dolores street who states that the dead woman called on her on Sunday told her she was going to Stockton and exhibited a purse full of gold

Detectives Cody and Bailey were detailed on the case this morning by Captain of Detectives Kelly and will make a thorough and complete investigation There is a theory to the effect that a Spanish woman who once worked for F W McDonald of 2017 Devisadero street where Miss Murphy was also employed may know something of her death She has disappeared and the police will begin a search for her at once

MONEY IS IN SIGHT FOR OUTLYING SANITARY WORK

Increased Saloon Licenses to Provide Part--Dr. Long Explains City's Need.

It will not be necessary to ask for popular subscriptions to raise money with which to take measures to stamp out the plague in the outlying districts, Chairman Mitchell of the board of supervisors, stated at this morning's meeting that the board had found other means to raise the money, although he would not state yet just whence all this money will come. A part of it, however, will come from raising the saloon license.

The meeting room of the board of supervisors was filled today with citizens from the outlying districts who came to hear Dr. J. D. Long talk to them on the dangers of the plague and the best measures for stamping it out, and to devise means with the supervisors for taking these measures.

Dr. Long said: "The danger to this State is not that of a wide-spread epidemic, but of quarantine. I feel safe in telling you that if there is an increase in the number of plague cases, or even the same number, the State will be quarantined. People living out of the State will become alarmed, and will protect themselves by refusing to take merchandise from this State, and persons trying to leave the State will be stopped at the State line.

"We are now placed in the position of facing the Oriental plague. From present indications there will probably be three or four times as many cases this year as last year, if prompt and effective measures are not taken immediately. Just at present there are very few cases, but that does not mean that the plague is stamped out. It simply means that this is not the flea season. The fleas are hibernating. The percentage of infected rats has increased, but the spread of the disease to human beings has lessened because there are few fleas now. But when they become active again we can expect more cases among human beings.

"Stamp Out the Rats."

"The way to stamp out the disease is to stamp out rats, which infect fleas, which infect human beings. It is essentially a rat disease. To do this everybody must get together. It is not enough for inspectors and ratkillers to work, but everyone must assist. One good way to get rid of rats is to starve them. Keep your swill and garbage in metal cans, where the rats cannot get at it. Keep your own food where they cannot reach it. If they find nothing to eat the rats will go away. Stables should be kept clean. Manure heaps are excellent breeding and feeding places for rats.

"Besides this, traps and poison should be set so as to kill the animals."

Chairman Mitchell advocated the calling of frequent meetings, at which Dr. Long or other physicians should talk on the plague question and show the people the necessity for fighting the disease and the best way to do it.

"Everybody Get Busy."

"Don't go away from here," said Mr. Mitchell, "with the idea that the other fellow should do it. Get in and do it yourself and see that the other fellow does it."

"Everyone should be impressed with the importance of this matter," said Supervisor Horner, "or our fruit will rot on the ground and our fields will go to grass."

"I will do my part," said Bridge, "but it is up to you all to do yours and take care individually to see to it that the rats are destroyed."

"If we do not stamp out the plague," said Kelley, "the fleet will be turned away from here, and the quarantine will paralyse business in this State for years."

Chairman Mitchell said that he would ask District Attorney Brown today to draft an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to maintain conditions so unsanitary that the work of rat killing is hindered.

GARBAGE DUMPS IN W. O. TABOOED BY COUNCIL

City Officials to Confer About Removing Location of Refuse Piles.

At the request of the West Oakland Improvement Club, Councilman Mullins introduced a resolution at a meeting of the City Council last night concerning the garbage question, which may result in the city moving the garbage dumps on the flats north of the Sixteenth street station. These dumps are defined as a nuisance under the resolution, which was adopted, the property owners in the vicinity of Twenty-second street, west of Peralta street being particularly opposed to the further dumping of garbage in that section of the city.

Mullins resolution provides "that the special Council committee on garbage which was appointed some months ago, confer with the board of Health in regard to abating the nuisance now existing in that portion of West Oakland in west of Peralta street."

Take Garbage Away.

Dr. J. D. Long of the United States Marine Hospital service, who has charge of Oakland's health conditions, has advocated that the garbage be placed on board ships and dumped outside the heads. This plan is favored by a number of members of the health board and the suggestion may be adopted at the meeting to be held between the Council comittee and the health officials. Councilman Mullins said last night that he considered the dumps in West Oakland a breeding place for disease and rats and considered that the garbage dumps were disastrous to the best interests of the city.

LARGER LICENSE ON THEATERS IS PROPOSED

Councilman Ellsworth last night introduced an ordinance looking toward a substantial increase in the licenses to be paid for theaters and all other places of amusement, with the exception of a circus or other exhibitions under canvas. Under the ordinance, which was referred to the committee on licenses for action, no license shall be required for exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools or other charitable purposes by amateur, dramatic or literary societies. At present the theater license is $25 per quarter for theaters of all classes. The Ellsworth ordinance segregates the theaters and raises the licenses as follows:

Proposed Rates.

Section 1—Every proprietor or lessee of any theater, concert hall, or any place of amusement, entertainment or exhibition, except a circus or other exhibition or performance given under canvas or a cloth covering, shall pay license according to the seating capacity of such theater, concert hall, place of amusement, entertainment or exhibition, as follows: 1. Those seating 975 persons or more, shall pay a license of $[illegible] for one year, $[illegible] per quarter if for three months, $[illegible] per month, $[illegible] per day, $5 per day. 2. Those seating less than 975 persons and free theaters, without reference to their seating capacity, shall pay a license for one year of $20 for three months, $75; for one month, $41; for one day, $7. 3. All theaters with seating capacity of less than 300 shall procure a license every quarter.

Section 2—One seat is twenty-two (22) inches.

Exempts Amateurs.

Section 3—All licenses issued under the provisions of Section 1 shall be known and designated as theater license, but no license shall be required for exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools or other charitable purposes, by an amateur dramatic association, or literary society.

Section 4.—Any persons, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment in the City Prison for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 5.—All ordinances or portions of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 6.—This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force immediately.

CHILD-WIFE SECURES AN INTERLOCUTORY DIVORCE

One month after her marriage to Ernest Sieghold, a bartender, his child wife, Lida, was forced by his cruelty to leave him, she testified in the trial of the divorce today. She was married in June of last year, and left her husband in July.

Before her marriage she was Lida Breen, and was once in court as an incorrigible. Previous to that she made charges against Oakland policemen that they had made improper proposals to her. Nothing came of these charges, however.

She was married at the age of seventeen. She accused her husband of neglecting to provide for her, of beating her, choking her, and trying to make her lead an improper life.

STREET CAR MEN TO MAKE NO TROUBLE

No troubles between the Oakland Traction and Key Route companies and the 750 union carmen in their employ are anticipated by J. W. Smart, business agent for the union, according to a statement made by him this afternoon.

The agreement under which the carmen have been working for the past year expires February 27, and there have been rumors to the effect that the union would fight a reported proposed reduction in the wage scale, which is now from 30 to 40 cents an hour for the first ten years of service, but Smart declared today the men would continue working under the old rate.

"After next Thursday," said Smart, "the men will continue to work under the old scale for about a month, until a conference is held between committees representing the company and the union."

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

A free illustrated stereopticon lecture for ladies and gentlemen on the San Joaquin Valley, its resources and opportunities it offers to home seekers, will be given Wednesday, February 26, at 8 p. m., at office of George W. Austin, 1018 Broadway, Oakland, by H. H. Whitmore, Esq., official State Board of Trade lecturer.

HETCH-HETCHY PROJECT FLAYED BY ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Declares Phelan Is Deceiving S. F. People

Editor TRIBUNE:

Dear Sir: Believing that you are fair minded enough to wish to hear the "other side" in any controversy pertaining to public utilities, I venture to send this article for publication.

The San Francisco daily newspapers have signally failed to place all the facts in relation to the Hetch-Hetchy project before the San Francisco people, and in addition, they have willfully misrepresented the case; for instance, when it was stated that the most influential people among us favored Phelan's Hetch Hetchy scheme, and when it was stated that but for the Spring Valley Water Co., that all the time was stirring up strife against San Francisco, there could have been no opposition here to Phelan's scheme; and again, in the matter of cost of the various systems by which to take water from the Sierras to San Francisco, it was stated that the Hetch-Hetchy could be had as a free gift, whilst to get water from other sources in the Sierras would cost many millions of dollars, and whilst thus holding out to San Francisco people this "free gift" of the Hetch-Hetchy as a tempting bait, would leave out of the count the greater number of millions that the necessary pipe lines, reservoirs and other water works would cost to take the water from the Tuolumne to the city. Here was an unequivocal and direct effort to deceive the people of San Francisco by what ought to have been their public teachers —the newspapers.

Declared Against.

Whilst the said public journals were claiming that but for the interference of the Spring Valley Water Company, the people of the Modesto-Turlock districts would favor the appropriation by San Francisco of the Hetch-Hetchy and Lake Eleanor, all the public bodies of Stanislaus county, one after another, were declaring against the scheme; but if one solitary journal ever reported the fact, the knowledge of such fact never reached the undersigned.

It is now proposed by Phelan and his crowd to buy out the Spring Valley Water Company as part of the plan to get on to the Hetchy-Hetchy. If it is for the purpose of getting rid of the diond-ed (?) opposition what is the difference, in principle, between this buying out of Spring Valley with the people's money and buying out opposition to a measure in a legislature for which members have been put behind bars?

It was always believed by the people of the Modesto-Turlock districts that the professed animosity and fight of Phelan's crowd against the Spring Valley was only a sham battle, for they had understood that Mr. Phelan dealt largely in the stock of the Spring Valley, and subsequent events seem to confirm that opinion. What are we to think of those who adopt the methods of the bunko steerer?

Nerves Blunted.

The "slop" furnished by the Spring Valley, so much complained against by Phelan's crowd, must have lost its savor, or else, the gustatory nerves, like the conscience of the said crowd, must have become blunted; for now they propose to buy out the Spring Valley Water Company and wait ten years for their water supply from Hetch-Hetchy.

But there is one point on which the San Francisco public has always been duly informed by the city press; it is as to the report of the hydrographic engineers, who, either under pay or under city influence, always see water enough in the Tuolumne for our irrigators and San Francisco. To show that there is not an available supply of water in the Tuolumne for the bay cities and the Modesto-Turlock districts, it is only necessary to ascertain the amount of acre-feet that can be impounded at all the reservoir sites and compare this with the amount of water that the two districts must have when all the land within them shall be under irrigation.

Not Enough Water.

The two districts cover 357,353 acres. During the latter half of our irrigation season—July, August and September—they will have to draw on the reservoirs in addition to the normal flow, in order to get water enough. The normal flow is 127,840 acre feet for the latter three months and the quantity needed from the reservoirs is 281,351 acre feet. This is so nearly equal to the amount that all the reservoirs combined can hold—287,261 acre feet—as to leave no reservoir room for any of the bay cities. There are fourteen reservoir sites on the Tuolumne. If the number were to be doubled, and the walls of the dams were to be raised at Hetch-Hetchy to 200 feet and at Lake Eleanor to 150 feet, there would not be reservoir room for the districts and the bay cities, let alone the irrigable land within reach of the Tuolumne, almost equal in extent to the two irrigation districts.

In the name of common sense, why cannot San Francisco get its Sierra water from a superabundant supply north of the Tuolumne. Why should the "crowd" insist on getting their water away from a semi-arid region that could yield its irrigated treasures for the enrichment of San Francisco. If this is a specimen of San Francisco's business sagacity, what wonder is it that Seattle is getting to be a rival city. San Francisco can have a dozen sources for a water supply; we of the Tuolumne, are confined to one.

V. E. BANGS.
President Modesto Irrigation Association.

Are You Sick?

Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength. Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.

"I was given up to die by a leading doctor. Got one of Dr. Miles books and found that Dr. Miles' Nervine fit my case. From the very first dose I took I got better. I am better now than I have been for years, and do all my own work on the farm. That's what Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me, and I am glad to recommend it to others."

Pneumonia Most Fatal During Winter Months

Statistics of the health department show pneumonia to be one of the most fatal diseases, especially during the winter months. The records show numerous instances where neglect of an apparently insignificant cold has developed pneumonia without warning.

It is the better part of wisdom to check a cold at the outset. Take two ounces of glycerine, a half pint of good whisky and a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine; mix thoroughly and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours. This formula is said to break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable. It has been found that five ounces of tincture Cinchona compound can be used instead of whisky, with the same result.

The ingredients are inexpensive and can be purchased without trouble at any good drug store. To avoid substitution of some inferior pine product for the Virgin Oil of Pine, it is better to purchase each separately and mix them at home.

The genuine Virgin Oil of Pine is put up for dispensing only in half ounce vials, each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case with an engraved wrapper showing plainly the name—Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, Serial No 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Be sure to get the genuine, as the oil sold in bulk and cheap imitations put out to resemble Virgin Oil of Pine in name and style of package are ineffective, being largely composed of a distillation of pine needles, or leaves, instead of from the pine tree proper.

These pine needle oils are not intended for internal use, and when taken internally usually cause nausea. Their use is mainly confined to the manufacture of soap and similar purposes.

MRS. J. C. TUCKER CALLED BY DEATH

Society Leader and Charitable Worker Claimed by Grim Reaper.

Mrs. J. C. Tucker, for many years a leader in social and charitable circles in Alameda county died this morning at the home of her son-in-law, A. S. Macdonald, 235 Vernon street. Death came with advancing years after a life of unusual activity and devotion.

Mrs. Tucker was the widow of the late Dr. J. C. Tucker, whom she accompanied to California in the early pioneer days, soon after their marriage in New York City. She was the eldest daughter of Albert Havemeyer, founder of the sugar trust. Raised amid luxurious surroundings in her Eastern home, Mrs. Tucker was peculiarly fitted to assume the leadership in the social life of Oakland, and during her residence here she was always recognized as one of the most prominent members of the exclusive set. Despite the claims which society laid upon her, Mrs. Tucker found much time to devote to charitable work, and she was a conspicuous figure in many of the local philanthropic enterprises. Perhaps the most important work which she accomplished was the founding of the Old Ladies' Home, in which she maintained an active interest up to the time of her death.

Mrs. Tucker was also deeply interested in music and she was the organizer of the Saturday Morning Orchestra and Musical Society of this city. She was an accomplished linguist, speaking half a dozen languages, and she had traveled extensively throughout the world. Her education was received in Europe. During the latter years of her life Mrs. Tucker allotted an increased share of her time to her charitable duties, and her of people who had come to know and love her through the beneficence of her death will be mourned by a large circle work.

Mrs. Tucker is survived by three daughters—Mrs. G. W. McNear, Mrs. A. S. Macdonald and Mrs. Edward L. Brayton—and by a number of grandchildren. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet complete.

MEN'S AUXILIARY SHOW TOMORROW

Big Effort at St. Anthony's Hall Eagerly Awaited by Expectant Friends.

The Young Men's Auxiliary, having completed all arrangements, are now anxiously waiting for 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night, when the curtain will be rung up on their first big effort in the show line at St. Anthony's hall, Sixteenth street and Sixteenth avenue, East Oakland.

The great bill will be headed by Mary Moncure Parker's roaring, rollicking farce, "A Quiet Evening At Home," with Mr. William Burke and Miss Josie Lamb in the leading roles. After this act which guarantees a laugh from start to finish, the audience will be treated to an hour of song and music. Four popular vocalists, J. J. Rosborough, Frank Howard, T. L. Bolton and A. Stone will render pleasing selections. George P. R. Clark the local headliner in monologue, premises much genuine fun. A real beauty chorus of stunning Oakland damsels under the direction of Miss Leza C. White, will contribute such songs as the "Message of the Violet," "The Leap Year Song," and "Meet Me By Moonlight," in a manner highly pleasing to all.

The program will be concluded by a sumptuous production of "Miss Civilization," by Richard Harding Davis. The title role will be ably handled by Miss Tilly E. Harkins. Roy D. Travers will cause many a shiver during his rendition of the heavy role, "Joe Hatch," Edward S. Budd plays "Reddy the Kid" in a professional manner; Laurence O'Connell's portrayal of "Harry Hayes" will recall memories of "Raffles," and Thomas M. Healy makes an ideal chief of police.

The stage, under the direction of Thomas F. Sullivan and his assistants will be ably managed. The musical program in charge of the Misses Marion and Agnes Fitton will be well rendered.

SUES ABSTRACT CO. FOR DAMAGES

Complainant Says Sewer Work Was Not Mentioned in Certificate of Title.

George P. Clough, of East Oakland, filed suit in Justice Quinn's court today for $200 damages against the Stocker & Holland Abstract Company on the ground of breach of contract in delivering a certificate of title. Clough alleges that in February last he applied to the Abstract Company for a certificate of title to a piece of property located at East Twenty-second street and Tenth avenue, which he had agreed to purchase from C. A. Fair. He declares further that the defendants furnished him with a certificate which reported a clear title, upon the strength of which he paid the purchase price to Fair and took a deed to the property. Some time later, complains Clough, he was presented with a bill for sewer work amounting to $200.25. This work, the complainant continues, had been duly ordered and publicly advertised by the city council and city engineer prior to his purchase of the property, and afterwards it became a lien which he was obliged to pay. He maintains that, while the proceedings were not actually a lien at the time of the purchase they constituted a cloud on his title, and in view of the fact that the certificate furnished by the abstract company states that their search included the records of Oakland city, he maintains that their alleged failure to report the proposed work constitutes a ground for damages. Attorney Bartley F. Peart represents the complainant.

RABBI NIETO EXPOSES IMMUNITY TRICK

approached before that time upon the matter of "coming through," as Mr. Burns expressed it. Mr. Ruef and I discussed the matter from a moral point of view and I urged him to tell the prosecution all he knew, stating to him first that it would be for the welfare of San Francisco, and secondly for his own peace of mind and for the sake of his parents. In response to my suggestions and urging Mr. Ruef rejected the proposition and stated to me that he committed no offense under the law, and further stated that if he had that it might implicate other persons and cause them and their families much trouble and anxiety; that he himself is a single man and without family save and except his parents and sisters. I left Mr. Ruef and shortly afterwards reported to Mr. W. J. Burns the result of my interview and Mr. Burns expressed to me the desire that I should continue my visits to Mr. Ruef for the purpose of inducing and urging him to make confession to the prosecution. Acting upon the request of Mr. Burns I decided to and did call upon Mr. Ruef several times and during all my subsequent visits I maintained the same position and urged Mr. Ruef to make confession.

Burns Offers Immunity.

During the interview that I had with Mr. Ruef he disclosed to me the fact that Mr. Burns had made the same request to him to tell what he knew concerning the trolley franchise and other matters, and that Mr. Burns, for and on behalf of the prosecution, had offered to him full and complete immunity; he also advised me at that time that while he was at the St. Francis Hotel that others had called upon him (Ruef) at said hotel and had there offered him complete immunity upon the authority of the prosecution, and that he had rejected the offer.

I reported these conversations with Mr. Ruef from time to time to Mr. Burns.

Ruef Sees Mother.

I continued importuning Mr. Ruef, and finally succeeded in causing him to say that he would seriously consider the matter because of the interest I was taking. I thereafter applied to Mr. Burns for leave to take Mr. Ruef to see his mother, saying to him at the time that I believed it would have a good effect upon Mr. Ruef in attaining the ends desired by the prosecution in the matter, and Mr. Burns said, "certainly, take him there; I will give directions to Mr. Biggy to permit you to do so." I thereupon went down to take Mr. Ruef to see his mother and it was understood that I should take him alone, but Mr. Biggy came along and I spoke to him about it. Mr. Biggy said he was doing so in order to avoid the censure of Judge Dunne and that he would remain outside of the presence of Mr. Ruef, myself and his mother. Mr Ruef met his mother in my presence, and there again in the presence of Mr. Ruef and his mother, I urged his mother to advise him to do as I wished him. I also advised her and him at that time that the disgrace would only be a temporary one, that he would have the friendship of the prosecution, and he would be able to shortly re-establish himself. This interview lasted over an hour and on the way over from Mr. Ruef's father's home back to the place of Mr. Ruef's detention Mr. Ruef authorized me to say to the prosecution that if proper arrangements could be made he would accept the proposition. I thereupon immediately reported to Mr. Burns and saw him again and a meeting was arranged to meet Mr. Heney, Mr. Langdon, Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Burns at the office of Mr. Heney at night and at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The Agreement.

I went there and there met Mr. William H. Langdon, Mr. Francis J. Heney, William J. Burns, Rudolph Spreckels, and thereafter Mr. Burns brought in Mr. Henry Ach, and a general discussion ensued. Mr. Heney and Mr. Langdon assured Mr. Ach that they had no personal animus against Mr. Ruef and that the intention and object of the prosecution was to expose the methods of corporations and to prevent the corruption of public officials, and that if Mr. Ruef would come through and tell what he knew that immunity in general would be granted him. The matter was talked over and the legal method of granting immunity was discussed among the lawyers present, and it was suggested that Mr. Ruef could be indicted upon all matters that he disclosed jointly with others and under the law, that he could be dismissed and discharged from these indictments and that they would operate as a bar against any further prosecution. Mr. Heney desired some slight punishment administered to Mr. Ruef, but that was not in accordance with what I knew that Mr. Ruef expected and the matter was reported back to Mr. Ruef and he rejected the proposition. It was agreed by all present that the meeting at Mr. Heney's office just above related and the subject of discussion should be held and regarded as a professional secret.

I was on the eve of departure for Europe and so informed Mr. Ruef and he then asked me to invite another clergyman to be present with me, so that in the event of my absence there might be some one to substantiate the statements made to me. I thereupon applied to the Rev. Dr. Kaplan and explained the situation to him and asked him in the interest of justice to attend with me my further meetings which I might have with the prosecution, or those representing the prosecution.

Proposed New Plan.

During all this time negotiations were still pending and I was holding interviews with Mr. Burns, who stated his opinion to be that as long as the prosecution desired Mr. Ruef to "come through" that they should give him absolute immunity. Finally Mr. Burns came to me again and said that the prosecution had another plan and invited me to meet the prosecution's attorneys at the office of Mr. Heney in company with Mr. Kaplan.

Thereupon Dr. Kaplan and myself visited the office of Mr. Heney and there met Francis J. Heney, Rudolph Spreckels and William J. Burns. There the same grounds were gone over again, Mr. Heney demanding some slight punishment to Mr. Ruef, if only nominal, and the prosecution and Messrs. Burns and Spreckels urged Dr. Kaplan and myself to go and see Mr. Ruef, and induce him to agree to the proposition. We walked upon Mr. Ruef, and arranged an interview for that night at the office of Mr. Heney. At that interview both told Dr. Kaplan and myself were and assured by Mr. Heney and Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Burns that they bore no enmity to Mr. Ruef and that what they were after were the "higher ups." I believed in the assurances and statements of the prosecution's agent and attorneys at that time and the gentlemen named, and also in the propriety of the course which they had mapped out, and believed that it was legally correct and with Dr. Kaplan called upon Mr. Ruef, and again urged and solicited him to accept the proposition, and asked Mr. Ruef, as I was requested to do by the prosecution, to place himself unreservedly in their hands.

Pledge Their Honor.

During this time I met Mr. Ruef's father frequently, and urged him to advice and insist upon his son doing as I requested. Dr. Kaplan joined me in these urgings, requests and implorations of Mr. Ruef. Dr. Kaplan and myself repeatedly asserted to Mr. Ruef and his father that we would pledge our honor and our sacred words, as ministers, that the prosecution would keep their promises to Mr. Ruef.

Subsequently to the last mentioned interview, and on the same day, Dr. Kaplan and myself called upon Mr. Ruef at his temporary place of detention, No. 2919 Fillmore street, and told Mr. Ruef that we were authorized by the prosecution, by Mr. Heney, by Mr. Spreckels, and by Mr. Burns, to promise him complete immunity from all punishment for anything that had been or might be charged against him, but that the prosecution would in view of the pendency of the existing trials on one of the French restaurant cases, insist that he (Ruef) should plead guilty to that charge, but that we would guarantee him, by authority of the prosecution, that he would not be punished on that plea; that we were instructed not to give him any details of how this would be accomplished but that he could safely trust himself to the prosecution, and to us, who guaranteed this to him on behalf of the prosecution.

Asserts Innocence.

Mr. Ruef thereupon stated to us in effect "Never mind, I know all the details," and subsequently told us that he had received the information from W. J. Burns. Mr. Ruef then stated to us that he would not accept the proposition of pleading guilty, because he was not guilty, and also stated to us that he would not accept any propositions which involved the dismissal of any indictments, or the dismissal of any of the cases, or the withdrawal of any plea, without having the assurances from the judges themselves that they would confirm the agreements and promises desired to be made by the prosecution in that behalf. Mr. Ruef was very emphatic upon that proposition.

I reported these conversations to Mr. Burns, and thereupon another meeting was arranged for that evening, at which Mr. Ach was requested to be present, and I insisted that Mr. Langdon himself should be present at the interview in addition to Mr. Ach and Dr. Kaplan. The arrangement was perfected, and we met at about 9 o'clock at night at the office of Mr. Heney in the city and county of San Francisco, and there were present Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, Reverend Bernard Kaplan, Mr. Francis J. Heney, Mr. William H. Langdon, Mr. Henry Ach, Mr. W. J. Burns and myself, and the matter and consideration thereof was thereupon discussed in detail.

Discuss Contract.

The law was gone into by the lawyers, and it was thereupon suggested by the prosecution that a contract should be prepared, and the following points were discussed: Mr. Ach said that Mr. Ruef would require, in the event of his making any agreement with them, first that the indictments returned against him for bribery should be dismissed, and Ruef jointly indicted thereafter with other persons, so that he could come within the provisions of a section of the law which would authorize the court to dismiss as to Mr. Ruef, and the dismissal be a bar to future prosecutions. The persons representing the prosecution said they would agree to this. Thereupon the question of obtaining the assurances of the judges was brought about, and Mr. Heney suggested that Mr. Ach should go with them and obtain the assurances. Mr. Ach declined to do so, and thereupon it was suggested that such assurances be obtained that night from said judges by Mr. Heney, Dr. Kaplan and myself.

Langdon Talks Politics.

During the interview the possibility that Mr. Langdon might not be re-elected district attorney came up, and Mr. Langdon assured and stated to Dr. Kaplan, myself and Mr. Ach that in that event every indictment against Mr. Ruef would be dismissed by him, Mr. Langdon, before his term of office expired. Thereupon, Dr. Kaplan and myself both stated to the officers of the prosecution—Mr. Heney, Mr. Langdon, Mr. Burns and Mr. Spreckels, in the presence of Mr. Ach, before going to see the judges that night, that in the event that we proceeded further in this matter and urged Mr. Ruef to accept these terms, provided we obtained these assurances from the judges, that they were to remember that we were pledging our words of honor, and our word as ministers of religion, to Mr. Ruef that in the event of causing Mr. Ruef to comply with their requests and demands, it was no longer a matter of keeping their arrangements with Mr. Ruef, but a matter of their, the prosecution, keeping their word of honor to Dr. Kaplan and myself. Mr. Heney and Mr. Langdon assured us that their word would be kept, and authorized and told us to pledge our word to Mr. Ruef. Thereupon, interviews were arranged for that night with Judges Lawlor and Dunne.

Mr. Heney, Dr. Kaplan and myself went to the Temple Israel, and at about midnight of April 29, 1907, Dr. Kaplan, Mr. Heney and Mr. Burns arrived at the Temple Israel in the City and County of San Francisco, and went to the rooms then occupied by Judge Lawlor for and as his chambers, and in the presence of myself, Dr. Kaplan and Mr. Heney, the following occurred: Mr. Heney said to Judge Lawlor practically this:

Midnight Conference.

"We may have to ask you in certain cases which may come into your court to"—and thereupon Judge Lawlor interrupted Mr. Heney, and said in effect as follows: "Gentlemen, I do not wish to know any of the particulars. It has been the practice of this court so long as this court had confidence in the District Attorney's office to act on all recommendations that the District Attorney might make in the interests of justice, such recommendations being made by motion in open court." Thereupon Judge Lawlor left the chambers, and Mr. Heney, Dr. Kaplan and myself remained, and we asked Mr. Heney, not being lawyers, what that meant, and Mr. Heney said that those assurances were ample and sufficient for us in the premises and stated we could give those assurances to Mr. Ruef. We relied upon what Mr. Heney told us.

Shortly thereafter, on the same night, and between 12 o'clock midnight of the 29th of April, 1907, and 1 o'clock a. m. of the 30th of April, 1907, Dr. Kaplan, Mr. Heney and myself met Judge Dunne in the office of the secretary of the Temple Israel in said temple. Mr. Burns conducted Judge Dunne into the secretary's room, where Mr. Heney, Dr. Kaplan and myself were awaiting his arrival, and at that interview the following occurred: Mr. Heney said to the judge, "Judge, Ruef will plead guilty to the indictment on trial, No. 405. We may subsequently ask you to allow the plea of guilty to be withdrawn, and that of not guilty substituted and the cases dismissed." Judge Dunne replied as follows:

Dunn Agrees.

"I have confidence in the district attorney's office and will do what you ask." After that Dr. Kaplan said to Judge Dunne, in the presence of myself and Mr. Heney, as follows: "Your honor, do I understand you to say that if Mr. Ruef pleads guilty you will allow the plea to be withdrawn and the case dismissed?" To which Judge Dunne replied, "Yes, certainly." And thereafter, as the judge was about to leave the room, Dr. Kaplan again said to him, "Your honor, do you really mean that you will allow the plea to be withdrawn and dismiss the case?" To which Judge Dunne replied, "Yes, yes, certainly."

After the interview just mentioned was concluded, Mr. Heney, in the hall of the Temple Israel, asked Dr. Kaplan and myself to go to Mr. Ruef and assure him that we had obtained from the judges in whose courts these proceedings would be assigned, the necessary assurances. We thereupon asked Mr. Heney whether we were justified and whether we should upon the interviews just related give to Mr. Ruef positive and unequivocal assurances on our word of honor that the judges had given the assurances desired and that Mr. Ruef could entrust himself safely to the prosecution, to which Mr. Heney replied, "Yes."

Pass Their Word.

Thereupon and immediately Mr. W. J. Burns took Dr. Kaplan and myself to the place where Mr. Ruef was being detained and we there, in the presence of Mr. Burns, gave to Mr. Ruef our words that the assurances of the judges, desired by his attorney, had been obtained, and again in the presence of Burns, we urged, requested and demanded of Mr. Ruef that he should comply with the tentative arrangements and agree to all of its terms. Mr. Ruef was insistent in ascertaining whether the judges had given their positive assurances; to which we replied in the affirmative. Mr. Ruef, that he wanted our words, and the reason that he wanted our words, and that reason that he desired that we should interview the judges was that he felt satisfied that they would never break their words to us. Mr. Ruef did not give us his determination that night, but I said I was going away the next morning, and that I wanted his answer.

Pressing the Matter.

At about 8 o'clock the next morning Mr. Burns called for me again, and asked me to go with him to see Mr. Ruef and to impress upon Mr. Ruef the necessity of his agreeing to the arrangement and not delaying any performance on his part relative to the proposed agreement. I called upon Mr. Ruef as I stated, with Mr. Burns, on the morning of the 30th day of April, 1907, and there again insisted and urged that Mr. Ruef comply with this agreement within the next twenty-four hours, and I urged the matter with him; I called his attention to the word which we had pledged, to the assurances which had been given by the judges and the prosecution; I also urged upon Mr. Ruef the good he could do to the city, and I called his attention to the physical condition of his father and mother and family, and urged him to do so for their sakes, and told him further that if he did not do it they would undoubtedly get a conviction against him, and no mercy would be shown him.

I thereupon went to Europe. I remained away until the 5th of August, 1907. After my return and until some time during the first Ford trial in Department No. 11 I met Mr. Langdon, Mr. Heney and Mr. Burns upon several occasions and chatted with them. They never at any time told me that they were dissatisfied with Mr. Ruef until pending that trial, at which time Mr. Heney stated to me, in general terms, that he did not think Mr. Ruef was telling all that he knew, but he made no serious complaint against him, and did not advise me that the contract was off, nor did he direct me to go and withdraw my assurances from Mr. Ruef.

Kaplan Gets Contract.

After I returned from Europe I was called upon by Dr. Kaplan, who had in his possession jointly with Mr. Burns the written contract for immunity which had been executed during my absence abroad, and was urged by him to take over the custody of this contract jointly with Mr. Burns. A conference was had with Mr. Burns upon the matter. He expressed his approval thereof, and thereupon the contract was transferred into the joint possession of Mr. Burns and myself and kept in a safe deposit vault of the First National Bank.

In the month of October, 1907, and during the first Ford trial, on the morning of the day that the prosecution closed its testimony, Mr. Burns came to me in the Temple Israel and requested that I remain in call in order that he and I might go down and obtain the contract, so as to hand it to Mr. Ruef, that it might be in his (Ruef's) possession when he was called as a witness for the prosecution. I did so, and when I heard that the prosecution had closed its case without puting Mr. Ruef upon the stand, for I then expected that he would be placed upon the stand, and the indictments dismissed against him in department No. 11 that morning. I met Mr. Langdon in the vestibule of the Temple Israel and asked him what difference the failure to call Ruef as a witness made to the agreement. He answered me, "None: the agreement would be kept." Subsequently, and after the interview with Mr. Langdon, Mr. Heney came downstairs, and he gave me the same assurances concerning Mr. Ruef and the contract that Mr. Langdon did.

Would Denounce Court.

On the 10th day of January, 1908, Mr. Burns called at my house and told me that the prosecution would keep its agreement and its word to me, and I understood thereby that the plea of guilty would be withdrawn, and subsequently to the 10th day of January, 1908, and before the 18th day of January, 1908, at the office of Mr. Burns, Dr. Kaplan and myself were both told by Mr. Burns that the plea would be withdrawn and the contract of the prosecution with Mr. Ruef kept, and Mr. Burns requested of us that we go to see Judge Dunne and request him to permit the plea to be now withdrawn. We declined to go and see Judge Dunne in this behalf.

In the month of January, 1908, and before the 8th of that month, Mr. Ruef called my attention to the fact that the newspapers were declaring that Judge Dunne intended to sign an order committing Mr. Ruef to the County Jail, which I understood to be in violation of the agreement of the prosecution so far as Mr. Ruef was concerned, and Mr. Ruef said to me that if they would do that they might also undertake to sentence him upon his plea of guilty. I met Mr. Langdon at the Temple Israel on one of the early days in January, 1908, and before the 10th day of that and reported to him and called his attention to the presence of Doctor Kaplan, to the rumored jail orders, and said to him that if any attempt was made to sentence Mr. Ruef, I would deem it my duty, if present in court, to denounce it in open court.

Langdon Doubts Ruef.

Mr. Langdon said to me that he was there for the purpose of preventing any such thing, and to take care of Mr. Ruef's interests, and to his utmost to see that Mr. Ruef was permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty. At the same time Mr. Langdon said to me that they were trying to persuade him that Mr. Ruef was not telling the truth, but until they could absolutely convince him of it, he would stand by the agreements.

I further say that I have repeatedly, from and after the first trial of the Ford case, received assurances and statements from Mr. Heney, Mr. Langdon, and Mr. Burns, that Mr. Ruef would be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty to Indictment No. 405, immediately after my return from Europe I called upon Mr. Heney, and requested him to cause the plea of guilty to be withdrawn at that time, and Mr. Heney then refused to do so, saying that he desired to hold that plea over Ruef.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908.

JACOB NIETO.

NINETEEN TAKEN AT TWO CITY STORES

Attendance of Piano Buyers at Eilers Music Co.'s Closing Out Sale Astonishes Local Merchants

Unheard-of Piano Buying Creates Tremendous Interest in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco. Further Information. Stores Open Evenings During This Sale

We proved conclusively yesterday that there is money and plenty of it in the Bay Cities which is immediately available when the right inducement to purchase is offered. Up to the time of writing this article no less than nineteen pianos had been taken on Monday by buyers at the two San Francisco stores alone.

The Sunday papers printed our announcement giving notice of the closing out of four stores—two in San Francisco, one in Berkeley and one in Oakland.

Local Merchants Astonished

From early morning until closing time each store was crowded and every available salesman was busy continually.

Several Oakland and Berkeley merchants who happened to call at our respective stores in these cities, were amazed at the volume of business being transacted.

In both the San Francisco stores the rush continued throughout the day and another record mark was reached in piano selling.

Money Certainly Abundant

They saw actual proof that the much-talked-of financial stringency is largely one of the imagination, and that the people have money with which to buy when a reliable firm offers sufficient inducement. The very atmosphere was charged with the buying earnestness of our callers. Another noteworthy fact was that in nearly every instance the instruments selected were of excellent medium and high grades.

Open in the Evening

Pursuant to many requests received in all four stores from customers who wished to bring in other members of their families in the evening, we have decided to keep each store open evenings during this sale.

We Have What You Want

Nearly every make of piano will be found in our establishments. Whatever your preference may be you will find it in this sale, no matter what name.

Kimballs, Hazeltons, Deckers, Steinways, Hallet & Davis, Knabes, Chickerings, Autopianos, Playola Pianos, Story & Clarks, Fischers, Rush & Gerts, Crown Orchestras, Hobart M. Cables, Haddorffs, Pease, Schumanns, Sohmers and other names illustrious in the piano world, are to be found here in largest variety. Uprights and grands, most of them brand new, some slightly used or second hand, and all one-third to one-half under regular price.

These Are Surely Half Price

We offer tomorrow the finest of mottled mahogany and burl walnut highest grade upright pianos for $182, $217 and $245, and will accept terms of payment as low as $10 a month; yes, $8 monthly, if necessary.

A large number of Kohler & Chase, Winthrop, Everett, Boardman & Gray, Ludwig, Steck, Fischer and other pianos, none of which can be told from new, will go for $95, $108, $137. Payments $6 monthly buys them.

A Real Guarantee

A real guarantee is one that provides for return of your money if purchase is not satisfactory. We unconditionally warrant every piano we sell as to service, quality and price. If same grade and quality is obtainable elsewhere for less money, we agree to take back the instrument and refund the money.

Talking Machines

Owing to the numerous requests that we have received for talking machines and records we wish to state that these are handled by our Fillmore street and our Berkeley stores only. The assortment is large and prices are about one-half below regular values. Regular 60 cent records are selling for 42 cents.

Four Stores Busy

This sale is now in progress at 1075 Clay street, Oakland; Shattuck avenue and Bancroft way, Berkeley; 1220 Fillmore street and 1120 Van Ness avenue, San Francisco. Eilers Music Company, largest piano dealers.

ANARCHISTS TO BE ROUNDED UP

Michael Delaney, it is believed at least thirty anarchists in various parts of the country will be placed under arrest within a few days. In speaking of the school of anarchist, whose movements the Denver police have gained knowledge, Chief Delaney said:

"We have traced Alio and his band from stone quarries in southern Italy to America, and have located most of the towns where they are living. The men are all stone workers and were driven out of Italy two years ago. Forty went together to Barcelona, Spain. Here, too, they worked as stone cutters, all the while teaching the diabolic doctrines of anarchy. They were discovered in Spain and were driven to Buenos Ayres. They remained there as long as they could, and then decided to come to the United States. They settled, all of them, in Paterson, and after a few days spread over the country.

"Who have located four who were detailed to work in Colorado. Alio is one and the other three will probably be placed under arrest today. We have definite information where there are others in Wyoming and several in Barry, Vermont."

Assassin Guarded.

Meantime, Alio, who is kept in jail at Colorado Springs, in order to prevent any attempt at lynching, vehemently denies that he belongs to any anarchist body that wishes to murder priests or that there was any plot at the bottom of the shooting.

"I did the thing on my own account and because it would ease my own mind," he declared. "I received no orders to kill the priest. I did it because I hate priests of all kinds."

The body of the murdered priest was removed this morning from the monastry to the church, where it will lie in state upon the sanctuary until after the public funeral services tomorrow. In accordance with the rules of the Franciscan order, Father Leo's associates held a private ceremony in the church at 9 o'clock today. Father Eusebius sang solemn high mass of requiem, assisted by two other parish priests. The church is draped in deep mourning.

At 10 o'clock the church was thrown open to admit the public, and during the day a constant procession passed through to look upon the face of the martyred priest.

Lived Austere Life.

That Father Leo lived a life of severe austerity is evidenced by a discovery made by the coroner when he prepared the body for burial. Next to the skin, wrapped about the waist and upper arms, were heavy bands of linked steel chains, and to each link was attached a hook eye, every one sharpened to a needle's point in such a fashion that each move the priest made caused the hooks to pierce his flesh and remind him of the life and death of Him in whose steps he struggled to follow.

Father Leo never spoke of his mode of penance even to his fellow clergy. Father Eusebius said that no one in the monstery surmised that the priest was undergoing such unusual and severe penance.

GREAT DEMAND

For Hyomei, the Catarrh Cure That Cures Without Stomach Dosing.

The record for sales of any medicine has been broken by the recent demand in Hyomei. This is not alone due to the peculiar weather conditions that have increased catarrhal troubles, but also to the way in which Hyomei is sold.

With every dollar outfit is given a guarantee to refund the money if Hyomei does not give absolute satisfaction and do all that is claimed for it. Some people may say "If only I knew it to be true, I would not hesitate a moment." This is the average individual's thought when reading some striking offer like this. You can, however, easily prove it true by asking about this guarantee.

The reason that Hyomei can be sold in this unusual way is due to its wonderful curative powers. There is no stomach drugging with Hyomei. It is a medicated air treatment that kills all catarrhal germs, prevents their growth, soothes and heals any irritation in the mucous membrane, vitalizes the tissues and makes catarrhal troubles impossible. It has cured many right in this town and you should try it now and get relief and cure from catarrh.

We positively guarantee Hyomei, for should you buy a complete outfit, price $1.00, and be dissatisfied with results, your money will be refunded. Hyomei is sold by druggists everywhere. Write for literature. Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

POLICE AT THE HEAD OF SANITARY CAMPAIGN

Berkeley Peace Guardians Will Enforce Observance of Precautionary Measures.

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—The police department was placed temporarily in charge of the sanitary campaign now going on in Berkeley at a joint meeting of the committee appointed by the Sigma Xi University society and the citizens this morning.

Complaints now being made to the Board of Health of violations of the sanitary laws, all failures of people to clean up premises and lapses to unsanitary conditions generally will be turned over to Chief of Police Vollmer, who will in turn see that his force investigates the cases and takes steps to have them remedied.

Dr. A. C. Lawson, chairman of the Sigma Xi finance committee, presided at the meeting today. There were present Mrs. Elino: Carlisle, president of the Federated Mothers Club; C. L. Hedamark, president of the South Berkeley Improvement Club; J. T. Renas, C. C. Juster and F. W. Foss of the Chamber of Commerce; J. W. Richards of the Berkeley National and Frank A. Naylor of the First National Bank; S. D. Waterman, superintendent of schools; E. D. Burrows, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Professor W. C. Morgan of the department of chemistry of the State University; Dr. J. J. Benton and Dr. Frank R. Woolsey of the Board of Health.

Chief of Police Vollmer consented to take charge of the work for the time being.

Will Prosecute Offenders.

This afternoon the Chamber of Commerce and the citizens will hold a meeting to consider the situation. Chief Vollmer declared at noon that he would vigorously prosecute all offenders against the sanitary regulations. He will continue in charge until the town has sufficient money to employ its own corps of inspectors, when Dr. J. D. Long will order a complete examination of every house in the town.

The health authorities report that out of 600 rats examined at the University bacteriological laboratory not a single case of infection from bubonic plague had been discovered.

"As far as we have gone we discover not the slightest sign of plague," said James W. Carpenter, who is in charge of the rat extermination of the sanitary campaign. "Many rats have come here from Oakland the last two weeks, because of the activity with which they are pursued there. It is barely possible that if any infection is discovered it will be from these immigrants. The work of exterminating these pests is going on satisfactorily. The offer of a bonus of $10 for the boy catching the largest number of rats is exciting competition."

Chairman A. C. Lawson of the finance committee of the Sigma Xi Society reports that the subscriptions up to noon amounted to $740.

The London Tribune says that a West England paper recently published the following report of the career of a mad dog:

"The infuriated animal was soon tearing up High street at full speed, and we regret to state that it severely bit the Mayor's son and several other dogs which happened t obe in the vicinity."

CO-EDS WILL PRESENT PLAY TO RAISE DORMITORY FUNDS

MISS JANICE MEREDITH, WHO WILL TAKE PART TOMORROW NIGHT IN "TRELAWNEY OF THE WELLS."

Moore, Mrs. Warren Olney, Mrs Whitney Palache, Mrs. Thomas Rickard, Mrs. H. B. Sherwood, Mrs. W. Frank Kelly, Mrs. M. J. Laymance, Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mrs. Oscar Luding, Mrs. Selma E. Woodworth, Miss Ethel Moore, Mrs. L. D. Inskeep, Mrs. G. H. Roberts, Mrs. Chester Noble, Mrs. Henry A. Butters, Mrs. Oliver P. Evans, Mrs. C. C. Hall, Mrs. Cora E. Jones, Mrs. P. R. Boone, Mrs Benjamin Bangs, Mrs. Admiral Miller, Mrs. F. B. Ogden, Madame Greenleaf, Mrs. J. N. Calkins, Mrs. Wells Whitmore, Mrs. Mark L. Requa, Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mrs. Oscar Maurer, Mrs. Mary Kelly, Mrs. Charles Blake, Mrs. Allen Freeman, Mrs. E. J. Wickson, Mrs. Clinton Day, Mrs. B. F. Weston, Mrs. Jacquez Loeb, Mrs. R. S. Holway, Mrs. F. S. Stratton, Mrs. William Letts Oliver, Mrs. William B. Dunning, Mrs. R. M. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Harry F. Gordon, Mrs. Harry Meek, Mrs. George D. Greenwood and Mrs. E. A. Heron.

The play will be under the auspices of two honor societies, the Mask and Dagger and the Pyrtanean. The best talent in the University will be seen in the cast. The receipts will be devoted to the women's dormitory fund. This fund now aggregates about $7000. A large sum is yet needed to carry out the plans of the committee appointed to provide accommodations for living quarters for women students, a familiar auxiliary of every other large university in America, but lacking yet at Berkeley.

SAYS HUSBAND PLANS THE MURDER OF HIS FAMILY

Long Knife Under Pillow, Wife States—Ask Police Protection.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 25.—Mrs. S. Brandt of 1193 Ninth street, wife of a saloonkeeper, whose place of business is at Ninth street and Santa Clara avenue, appealed to the police this morning for protection from her husband, she reporting that evidence pointed to the fact that Brandt had made arrangements to kill her, her child and his mother-in-law and then take his own life. As a result of the complaint, the police will keep a close watch on Brandt, who is said to have been drinking heavily the past few days, and is now in a highly nervous condition.

According to Mrs. Brandt she discovered a long, ugly looking knife under her husband's pillow this morning as she was making up the bed. This led her to the opinion that Brandt had designs on her life and the others in the home. The finding of the knife in connection with her husband's condition led the woman to make known her suspicions, with the result that Brandt will be under the watchful eyes of the police.

ALAMEDA MAYOR NAMES A RECEPTION COMMITTEE

Isle City Also to Entertain the Sailors.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 25.—Mayor E. K. Taylor has appointed a committee of twenty-five citizens to co-operate with committees from other cities in the reception to the fleet of Admiral Evans. The following is a list of those who have been named: E. B. Bullock, J. E. Baker, W. M. Bowers, Samuel Center, G. W. Emmons, W. J. Gorham, M. E. Gaines, William Hammond Jr., J. S. Hanley, N. C. Hawks, Herbert Hanser, W. H. L. Hynes, E. E. Johnson, J. B. Lanktree, E. O. Tuttle, F. E. Mason, C. S. Neal, G. M. Owen, R. A. Russell, Charles R. Smith, F. W. Van Sicklen, Louis Weinman and Paxton Wright.

STRENUOUS LIFE

U. C. OARSMEN MUST GET UP BEFORE BREAKFAST

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—Orders were issued this morning to the upper classmen and freshmen who are seeking a place on the 'varsity boat crew for the year that they must get up earlier. Professor Walter Magee declares they must report at Harmon gymnasium every morning at 6:30 where twenty minutes will be spent on the machines under the direction of Captain Witter, to be followed by ten minutes exercise on the track. In the afternoon the men will report to Coach Garnett for as long a row as possible. Once a week there will be a six mile cross-country run.

FIVE IMPROVEMENT CLUBS JOIN FOR THE FOURTH

Berkeley Section Will Give Celebration, Athletic Contests and Ball to Rival Cities.

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—Five improvement clubs along the Berkeley-Oakland line have joined hands in a plan to hold a celebration of the Fourth of July, the coming summer, for the entertainment of the region of Oakland north of Fortieth street and of Berkeley south of Russell street.

The clubs behind the movement are the North Adeline, the Alcatraz, the South Berkeley, the Santa Fe and the Claremont. Each of these organizations represents a large and rapidly growing region and to interest the people in a home celebration it is proposed to bring attractions to their door.

The celebration planned is to be independent of any held in either Oakland or Berkeley. It will consist of bicycle and automobile races, track events, baseball and football games, and athletic contests of all kinds. There will be the usual patriotic services in the morning, fire works at night, and a grand ball to close the day.

Independent Celebration.

A meeting of representatives of all the improvement clubs and other organizations in the region has been called to the coming week. Committees will be selected at large.

"This celebration is being planned to indicate to the country that the region about the Oakland and Berkeley line centering about the Key Route and Southern Pacific tracks is growing into a large business center and that it proposes to make itself as inviting as possible for the stranger," said A. J. Arens, secretary of the South Berkeley Improvement Club.

"We are planning to have five clubs co-operate and we may have six when we complete our plans, as the Ashby Club will probably assist. The people of Golden Gate, Emeryville, South Berkeley, Alden, North Oakland and the south end of Berkeley are willing, we believe, to take a hand in this celebration. It will be a novelty, inasmuch as it is the first time that a new section in the metropolitan portion of Alameda will attempt a celebration independent of anybody else or of any arrangements made by the authorities in the municipalities to which we belong.

"We have suitable grounds for all exercises on Adeline street, north of Alcatraz. The people of North Oakland and South Berkeley are one in interest and the boundary line is purely a fiction, except in matters of civic government. This is no venture to aid consolidation of Oakland or Berkeley, or the like—it is simply a business proposition. We need publicity and we feel that a big Fourth of July celebration here will help us. We will arrange a series of attractions that will favorably compare with either Oakland or Berkeley."

BRIDE IS GUEST OF HONOR AT AN INFORMAL LUNCHEON

MRS. SYDNEY HASLETT (NEE MISS ROSE HOHFELT), WHO WAS MOTIF OF RECEPTION IN ALAMEDA.

Mrs. Sydney Haslett Entertained

ALAMEDA, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Mary Haslett of 1540 Central avenue, entertained a small number of friends today at an informal luncheon. The motif for the affair was Mrs. Sidney Haslett, who was Miss Rose Hohfeld. The utmost simplicity characterized the entertainment.

MRS. CHARLES H. SOUTHER
arrived here from Boston and is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Shattuck, in Paru street. Mrs. Souther is well known here, having several times visited with her relatives. She will be much entertained during her stay.

MISS HELEN MORROW
of Menlo Park was the guest of Miss Mildred Foster of 1011 Grand street last week. She returned to her home Saturday.

MISS RUTH HEBBARD of this city was one of the guests at the house party given by Miss Alice Martin in San Lorenzo. Miss Hebbard returned home on Sunday.

MRS. M. H. KRAUTH
was given a surprise on her return from the Librarians' Convention at San Jose Saturday night to find that her assistants at the library had taken charge and were giving a masquerade dance. It had been the intention of Mrs. Krauth to entertain on Saturday night, but her guests got to the house before she arrived and acted as the hosts and hostesses.

MRS. WALTER FOLEY
and Mr. Ralph Bins were the guests of Miss [illegible]ce Baker of Central avenue, last week.

MISS EDITH [illegible]LSON of Sacramento [illegible] guest at the home of Mrs. George Perry in Willow street. Raymond Perry was host at a dinner given in her honor on Saturday night.

MISS IMOGENE KIRK
daughter of Thomas Kirk is at Paso Robles Springs where she will remain this week.

POET WILL DRESS BERKELEY FOR RECEPTION OF FLEET

Charles Keeler in Charge of Decorations

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—Charles Keeler, the poet, has been appointed to take charge of the decorations for this city in connection with the coming reception to be tendered the men of the fleet. At a meeting of the executive committee last night, Poet Keeler outlined some of his plans but as the finance committee was unable to say what money would be available, Keeler is not yet ready to submit any detailed scheme of ornamentation.

Keeler said he had interviewed every artist and architect in Berkeley and believed that they would all willingly contribute something in the way of designs. Every effort will be made to avoid the prosaic and the commonplace in the color and floral work and it is hoped by the committee that the whole decorative work will be not only unique but of the highest artistic quality.

"We want something that will represent the Berkeley spirit," said Chairman P. R. Boone. "Of course, at present there can be nothing in detail determined because we do not know what money we will have. But I believe that the decorations, however limited, will be very attractive and beautiful."

Plans on Big Scale.

Dr. Hubert N. Rowell said he was in favor of any plan of decoration, but he wanted it on a big scale. Dr. Rowell wanted the whole of Berkeley dressed in new bib and tucker, clear from the water front to the top of the hills on the east.

Charles H. Spear, chairman of the finance committee, promised to have a report ready by next Monday evening. The executive committee believes that at least $10,000 should be provided for the expense of the entertainment. Just how this money is to be secured has not yet been explained. A popular subscription seems to meet with the favor of the majority of the committee.

A communication was read from Rufus P. Jennings of the California Promotion committee suggesting that the Berkeley committee get in touch with the San Francisco people arranging the reception there with the purpose of naming a delegation to proceed to Magdalena bay to ascertain the wishes of Admiral Evans and learn the date of the coming of the ships and what the practice of shore leave would be upon their arrival. Jennings said that Secretary of the Navy Metcalf had written that upon the arrival of the ships in the bay every man possible would be given shore leave the following day.

The committees of finance, transportation and publicity will meet in the town hall Saturday night. The committees on decoration and entertainment will meet Monday at 7:30 and the executive committee at 8:30 in the town hall.

CLEAN BILL FOR ALAMEDA ASKED

50,000 Club Believes That It Has Best System for Killing Rats.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 25.—Thursday night plans for complete sanitary methods will be adopted at the meeting to be held in the City Hall. Drs. J. D. Long and Rupert Blue are to speak and it will be the effort of the citizens to speak to show the Government experts that Alameda is capable of taking care of herself.

The ways and means committee appointed by the Fifty Thousand Club has decided that the best way of killing rats will be to divide the city into sixteen districts with a superintendent at the head of each district. The superintendents will be held responsible for the sanitary condition of each district and will work under the direction of the Health Board.

This plan will be submitted to the experts at the meeting on Thursday when they will be asked if it is one that meets with their approval and if they will give the city a clean bill of health if the work is done in the described manner.

There will be talks by several members of the Health Board. The meeting is an open one and special arrangements are being made to furnish seats for the women who desire to attend.

INCIPIENT KNOWLEDGE.

That the royal road to learning is full of strange pitfalls is shown by some of the definitions and statements given by school children—some of whom are well along the way. The following are bona fide samples coming under the knowledge of one teacher:

About this time Columbus was cursing around among the West Indies.

Jackson's campaign in the valley was the greatest piece of millinery work ever known.

The Valkyrie were the Choosers of the Slain, and the Valhalla the Haulers of the Slain.

The eldest son of the King of France is called the Dolphin.

The Duke of Clarence, according to his usual custom, was killed in battle.

Heathen are paragons (pagans) that wash up idle things.

The Indians call their women squabs.—Harper's Weekly.

TALL TIMBER TALE.

The following story is told by Scott Cummins, the poet, who for many years was a cow puncher in the northwest:

"One day we reached Snake river with 3000 head of cattle. The river was in flood. Swimming across was out of the question. A short distance up the bank our foreman found a giant redwood tree that had fallen across the river. The tree was hollow, and our boys had no trouble in driving the cattle through to the other side. But when they came out and were counted they were thirty head short. We couldn't understand what had become of the missing ones until we heard a distant lowing. We traced it up and found that the strays had wandered off into a hollow limb.'

Statistics show that the average woman would rather draw a blank in the matrimonial lottery than to have no chance at all.

BY WAY OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

"The manager always keeps back a portion of the villain's salary."

"Why does he do that—afraid he'd skip?"

"No; but he always acts his part better when he's mad."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

DEVELOPS YOUNG BURBANKS IN BERKELEY

Schoolmaster Trains Charges Along Special Lines of Nature Study.

BERKELEY, Feb. 25. — A brand new crop of fruit and plant wizards is being developed by Principal J. A. Imrie of the Washington school. Imrie has adopted the plan of setting apart a few minutes each day for the study of nature, with special refrence to the development of flowers and fruit bearing shrubs and trees and plants generally, and in ten years he hopes to have plenty of Burbanks.

The idea has become popular among the school children. Imrie thinks it is a pleasant and useful relaxation and one that will yield material results. He thinks that the study of botany is made more attractive by such object lessons as first sight growth of flowers and plants.

Start Gardens.

On account of the limited amount of available ground in the school yard, the gardens have been started on a vacant lot adjoining the schoolhouse and a varied assortment of flowers have been planted and are being cared for daily by the pupils. Every pupil is made responsible for the care of some certain plot and there is keen rivalry existing between classes as to which can make its garden present the best appearance.

Professor Imrie has interested the professors in the agricultural department of the University and through the suggestions of these instructors great good is being accomplished.

Bowling Popular Game in Berkeley

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—The bowling fever seems to again be reigning in this city. For the past two months there have been tournaments three times a week at the California Bowling Alleys, and now comes the news that the team of the California Alleys will take a trip to all the towns of good size and within a reasonable distance from Berkeley, bowling three games in each town. Many challenges have been sent out, among them letters to Santa Clara, Napa and Palo Alto. These towns have strong teams and should give the crack team from the college town a good rub. The Berkeley team boasts some clever bowlers, one of their number, Dick Scriber, having bowled a score of 267 in last Friday night's tournament. The members of the team are: R. Whitney, H. Bevener, C. McConnell, R. Jordan, R. Scriber and Captain Joe Donohue.

The next match on the California Alleys will be Oakland vs. California, Friday, February 28, and the home team will soon nafterward start on its trip through the inland towns.

THEATRICAL AGENT SENDS BULLET INTO HIS BRAIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. — Joseph L. Munzer, a former theatrical agent, despondent because of lack of funds and an enforced separation from his wife, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Audubon, 928 Ellis street, by shooting himself through the head.

Munzer was well known in the theatrical world and had many friends. He had recently received $2000 from his brother in New York and the refusal of the latter to advance him any more money and a letter from his wife telling of her loneliness, because of their separation, influenced him in putting an end to his life.

Munzer had been out of employment for some time and has lived for several months at the Hotel Audubon.

COMMON SENSE VS. STRONG DRUGS.

Simple Oil of Wintergreen Cures Eczema and Drives Out Old Fogy Treatment.

If you were to hack your finger or scald your arm, you would apply some healing remedy as soon as possible, wouldn't you?

That would be good common sense and it would bring the quickest relief. You surely would never think of drinking medicine or doctoring the blood to cure a surface affliction.

It's just the same principle with diseases of the skin. Eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum and barber's itch can be cured and cured easily if you strike right at the trouble as you do with a cut or burn.

The cause of itching, burning skin diseases, according to modern science, is a germ which feeds upon the weaker parts of the skin. To kill these skin bacilli which produce the itching sores and ugly red blotches, use the famous prescription of oil of wintergreen, glycerine and thymol, commonly known as D. D. D. Prescription. This mild liquid was advocated by a prominent skin spedalist, Dr. Dennis of Chicago, long before it was adopted generally. This liquid is called D. D. D. Prescription. It is a positive specific for all skin disease.

Don't dose the stomach. Cure the skin through the skin. We know D. D. D. and vouch for it. Call at our store and let us explain. Owl Drug Company. Booklet on skin diseases free.

New Back for An Old One—How It Is Done in Oakland.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one.

Mrs. John Anderson, 1911 Berkeley way, Berkeley, Cal., says: "When I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills I was suffering from a weak back, pain in the loins, and was in a generally run-down condition, which was due to kidney trouble. I would get up in the morning with such a headache that I dreaded to attend to my household duties and my back was so weak I could not lift anything. There was also much disturbance of the kidneys, which annoyed me greatly, especially if I caught cold. I tried different remedies, but was not helped until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They seemed to be just what my system required, and at once they relieved the kidney disorder, removed the weakness in my back and improved my health generally. They also drove away the headaches which had made my life miserable for a long time. I am now enjoying fine health and am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

SAYS REPUBLICANS MUST GET NEW STANDARDS

Garrett of Tennessee Arraigns Party in House—Flays Present Ideas.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A general arraignment of the Republican party was made in the House of Representatives today by Mr. Garrett of Tennessee. He charged that during its entire career that party "had just three fundamental arguments with which to appeal to voters." He asserted that the party came into power by an affiliation with the anti-slavery sentiment of the country, while in the second stage the Republicans retained power by appealing to the heroic memories and the intense but inevitable prejudices engendered in the war in which slavery was abolished.

"For two decades," he declared, "the 'bloody shirt' was the party banner, and behind its crimson flowing folds they marched to victory after victory."

Third Contention.

"The third stage," he said, "was the argument with which we of this generation are so familiar, that 'Republican success means prosperity and Democratic success does not.'"

This last contention had become the battle hymn of the party, he said. Not in fifteen years, he charged, had the Republican party, as such, faced an issue squarely, "out in the open sunlight of judgment and reason."

Garrett declared that every panic since 1860 "has had its beginning with the Republican party in power and with Republican legislation of the statute books." He undertook to refute the Republican allegations that the panic of 1893 was in anticipation of a Democratic administration. Referring to conditions existing in October, 1907, with Republicans in full control, he said the business interests knew in advance there would be no tariff tinkering before 1909.

Will Revise Tariff.

He scouted the idea that the Republicans during the short session would revise the tariff. "Oh, no," he said, "the tariff will be revised at the next long session by a Democratic house." He spoke of the industrial lethargy since October, 1907, the number of men out of employment, the bank failures, and in discussing the causes of that condition, said that they were not due to a Democratic administration.

"Something just stopped," he said, "and all happened under a Republican administration." "Oh, chairman," he continued, "the Republican party has reached a new era. It stands face to face with cold, dispassionate, industrial facts which belie its words of fifteen years. You must come out in the sunlight now and meet this tariff issue on its merits and demerits.

New Standards.

"This dilemma confronts you: Either you must deny the teaching of fifteen years as to responsibility of an administration for an industrial depression which occurs while it is in power or you must assume responsibility for the present conditions.

"If your covenant to preserve prosperity was sincere it was silly, if it was insincere it was criminal; but you made your bed—lie in it or lie to keep from lying in it. In any event there would be heard some new ideas.

"You have got to learn another speech. The third era has passed. In the first stage of your party life the argument was prayer, in the second praise and progress, in the third prosperity. In the fourth what are we to have? It must be new. The panic of 1893 will be no more a vicarious atonement for your party sins and the charity soup house will be for you to secure a means of saving grace. We await, gentlemen, with interesting anticipation the birth of the new thought."

GRACE GEORGE COMING AS STAR IN "DIVORCONS"

Grace George, direct from her successful engagements in London and New York, comes to the Macdonough for a week's engagement, beginning Monday next, appearing in Sardou's sparkling comedy, "Divorcons." Miss George will be seen for the first time in this city as Cyprienne, a part that has been played by Rejane, Duse and other well-known old world actresses.

Miss George will have in her support a notably strong cast, which will include Frank Worthing, whose work has also received very high commendation; A. H. Stuart, William Ricciardi, Douglas Gerrard, Justine Cutting, Angela Ogden and an additional list of players that will make the production take on the aspect of an all-star cast.

Love is the incentive to prove the facts that it costs ever so much more for two young people to live together than separately.

DON'T SUFFER ALL WINTER

Read This Evidence and Begin Today to Cure Yourself With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Sciatica is neuralgia of the sciatic nerve. Its origin is generally rheumatic and is the direct result of taking cold. For this reason the disease is commonly known as "sciatic rheumatism."

Absolute rest is the best aid to proper medical treatment. Rest and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure most cases.

Mrs. Mary M. Etz, of No. 809½ West Clinton street, Elmira, N. Y., suffered for nearly a year and during a great part of that time her symptoms were constantly increasing in severity, although she was under the care of a doctor and a nurse. "I had very weak heart action," she says, "and I believe that my kidneys became affected. There were terrible pains in my back and limbs and my feet and ankles were swollen. I had night sweats, and sometimes a cold numbness in my limbs.

"My trouble was sciatic rheumatism complicated with grip and at times I could not raise my foot two inches from the floor. The rheumatism grew gradually worse as my system was weakened by the poison the grip had left in my body. About this time a friend of mine who lives in Cortland recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I tried them and was soon relieved. In all I took six boxes and was cured. One remarkable thing I noticed about the pills was that they began to give me strength almost as soon as I began the treatment. I shall be glad to have you publish this and I hope the pills will be a blessing to others as they were to me."

Sciatica is stubborn in resisting treatment and the patient frequently suffers for years. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply relieve pain but they cure diseases caused by depraved or vitiated blood. They actually make new blood and have therefore a direct and powerful curative effect on such diseases as rheumatism, anaemia, general debility, after-effects of the grip, neuralgia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance and locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

BISHOP PLAYERS IN FARCE, 'CHARLEY'S AUNT'

Bishop's Players demonstrated their versatility last night when they gave an excellent performance of Brandon Thomas' farcial comedy "Charley's Aunt," after a season of Shakespearean works. It is hard to say how often this never old, always funny comedy has visited our city but its performance at Ye Liberty was one of merit and proved that in capable hands it has lost none of its power as a fun maker.

Its story is well known and the players play it with a zest which guards against staleness. George Friend as "Babs," the good fellow who is all right until he impersonates Donna Lucia, Charley's aunt, adds another to a long roll of notable successes, no refined comedy this popular young actor has few equals. Henry C. Mortimer and Landers Stevens as the resourceful Oxford undergraduates were good and Henry Shumer as Spettigard, and E. L. Bennison as Colonel Chesney contributed much of the fun. Lillian Elliott made a charming Norma, Lucia and Isabelle Fletcher and Georgie Cooper as Kitty and Amy were pleasing in their respective roles.

The hilarity of the lines is given a delicate setting by a pathetic story of a gambler's suicide and an effort to make restitution told in a charmingly tender manner by Margot Merriam who played the role of Ela Delahay. The role is not a large one, but it lends shading to the play and Miss Merriam gave it proper emphasis. This pretty ingenue is new to Ye Liberty patrons, and the impression she made in "Charley's Aunt" was decidedly favorable and augurs well for the future.

Milton Stallard the stage manager and Grace N. Wishaar the scenic artist are entitled to a share of the credit given this excellent production. Next week "The Boys of Company B." introducing Miss Marion Barney to Oaklanders.

NOVELTY HAS A STRONG VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM

At the Novelty Theater, this week, the management is presenting the famous legitimate actors, Melbourne MacDowell and Virginia Drew Trescott, in their great dramatic playlet, "The Oath" taken from "The Serf and the Lady."

These artists are no doubt the greatest that have ever appeared at the Novelty Theater, and the company for the week consists of eight star features with such notables as Crawford and Meeker, the singing comedians, Miss Sloan, the aerial artists, sister of Tod Sloan, America's famous jockey.

Oliver Reese, the phenominal baritone, and Baker and Carlile, conceded to be the greatest team of colored entertainers on the vaudeville stage today, and no doubt the performance as a whole eclipses all previous efforts of the management. Never in the history of the Novelty Theater has such notable stars appeared, and beginning next Monday as an advertisement feature, the admission to the Novelty Theter will be reduced.

STELLA REECE TO GIVE CONCERTS IN OAKLAND

MISS STELLA REESE.

Miss Stella Reece, a music student who recently arrived from Sydney, Australia, is planning to give a series of recitals in this city in the near future. Music-lovers on both sides of the bay are awaiting the event with pleasant anticipation. She has frequently been heard at private recitals, where she elicited the admiration of musicians who rank high in musical circles about the bay cities. Miss Reece is a licentiate of the London College of Music, where she was esteemed one of the most gifted students in the institution.

For one still in her teens Miss Reece has a fine future before her, friends say, and has been encouraged to go on the concert stage in California, where she intends to make her debut. Miss Reece has won a great many friends in this city.

GOOD BILL OF FEATURES SHOW AT BELL THEATER

Seven clean, clever vaudeville acts and two reels of motion pictures constitute the bill at the Bell Theater this week. It is an offering that can be commended for pleasing entertainment.

The big novelty of the program is furnished by a Turk named Kater, who has three wives and one son. The four older persons are painters and the son shines as a cartoonist. If you want to see pictures made while you wait, and don't wait long, a visit to the Bell will repay you. Kater paints one immense picture while his wives content themselves with smaller ones. It might seem like sort of a dull act to watch, but Kater and his wives work so rapidly that it is fascinating, and as their brushes create one thing after another the audience finds itself applauding.

Without belittling other acts on the program it might well be said that first honors are due the five members of the Eddy family, musicians, slack wire walkers and tumblers. They are experts at all three branches of amusement and give one of the best acts the Bell has ever offered its patrons. As wire-walkers and tumblers they are at the top.

La belle Mariette, a Parisian, assisted by Masieur Hasse, gives an attractive exhibition of whirlwind dancing. La Belle Mariette is pretty, petite and graceful and she seems to delight in dancing.

St. Onge Brothers, trick bicyclists, offer a turn that is immensely good. They do apparently impossible things on wheels and at the same time throw some real comedy into their work. Devoy and Evans, acrobats and hand balancers, give a remarkable act of strength and skill.

Miss Olga Hayden, a daughter of Joe Hayden, best known as the author of "Hot Time," rendered several songs. She has a baritone voice and knows how to use it. She sang last night for the first time a song entitled "Coming 'Round the Horn," written by her father and dedicated to Bob Evans and his fleet. It has a catchy swing and will undoubtedly become popular.

Evan Evans supplied a monologue, and this, with two reels of motion pictures, completed the offering.

"DANGERS OF NEW YORK" AT COLUMBIA THEATER

This cozy playhouse was packed last night to see Max Steinle and the popular Columbia stock company in the comedy-drama, "The Dangers of New York." Max Steinle appeared in one of his old-time comedy parts, so popular with his many Oakland admirers, that of Clip Nolan, rollicking Bowery boy, in which his happy-go-lucky ways and his specialties brought down the house. Steinle was assisted in his comedy scenes by Miss Virginia Thornton, as Nellie Moran, and Miss Mattie Hyde, as Mrs. Nolan. Ralph Belmont, as the wronged hero, and Al Hallett, Bert Porter and William Daul are good as the three "bad villains." Miss Alpha Gertrude Clark made a sweet and sympathetic Amy Gleudon, and Laurence Peterson was a dignified Judge Carleton.

Kinetic Energy

Kinetic is a good word. It means "power to make things go." A fat bank account, a rock on the edge of a hill, a barrel of gunpowder, and SCOTT'S EMULSION all contain "kinetic energy," so the professor tells us.

HOPPER IS STILL AN OLD FAVORITE

Drew Good Audiences—Bills at the Others Theaters of Oakland.

De Wolf Hopper and his merry company played to houses in the Macdonough Sunday afternoon, night and last night, offering De Koven's new opera "Happyland." In many respects this is probably one of the best vehicles for Hopper's genius that has ever been given him. He appeared to splendid advantage, and was greatly pleased at the warm welcome extended by his audiences.

The music is catchy, the players are good, and it is the most finished production scenically that has ever been seen in Oakland. Marguerite Clark, as Sylvia, was given warm greetings, and earned her applause by clever acting and good singing.

Hopper's honors were shared by William Wolff as Altimus, King of Altruria, and Detmar Poppen, who has a good voice, and who is the only member of the cast who could be accused of excessive staginess.

Hopper responded to the encoras both in the afternoon and evening, and made one of his characteristic curtain speeches at each performance, reciting "Casey at the Bat" both times. The chorus was good, the scenery excellent, and the ensemble perfect.

SECOND WEEK OF SAN TOY AT IDORA PARK

That the second week of "San Toy," the delightful Chinese musical comedy, in the Idora Park Opera House will be even more popular than was the first seemed to be indicated by the size and enthusiasm of the audience that attended last night's performance. The production was thoroughly enjoyed. Every number was encored time and again until the singers and comedians of the company were all but exhausted.

Ann Tasker again sang the title role of the piece with great sweetness of voice and charm of manner. Grace Travers was very much improved in her soubrette work, though everyone thought her good enough a week ago. She has now lost all her nervousness, however, and there is not a trace of awkardness left. She sang and danced last night very pleasingly.

In the role of Li the ever-popular Ferris Hartman was even funnier than he was last week. He is getting deeper into the part. He plays the role for what it is and makes it thereby all the more effective. Joseph Fogarty is a big part of the show. As the haughty Chinese mandarin who wishes to keep his daughter, San Toy, from the emperor's court he does excellent work. His song, "Six Little Wives," with a half dozen very pretty and dainty chorus girls assisting takes the house by storm.

The others in the cast do well, especially Walter De Leon. Edna Robinson is a picture and Wallace Brownlow sings in a strong resonant voice.

Valuable Remedy for Colds and Croup.

W. W. Gray, an attorney at Wenatchee, Wash., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for colds and croup with good results. I aim to always keep this remedy in the house." Sold by Osgoods' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets.

When the man in the office said "one dollar," the Count who wed Miss Shonts exclaimed "Stung!" But the private secretary of the old man saved his life by pushing in the coin.

Knocking Mare Island.

The knocker of Mare Island navy yard has been active for a great many years. He is still alive and busy as ever. He never had and does not have today any just ground for his knocking, but he seems to do it by force of habit. He has no respect for truth in his knocking. He says now that there is only nineteen feet of water at points in the channel to reach the navy yard. The Sazerac Lying Club in its palmiest days never had a worthier candidate for membership.

It has been suspected that Bremerton, or rather those interested in the development of Bremerton as a naval station and as a principal navy yard on the Pacific Coast, were the chief knockers, because there are large private property interests concerned in Bremerton's perfection as a naval station. It may have been warranted, but the suspicion is growing, and there is no escaping from it, that other agencies apart from Bremerton are in the conspiracy to down the Mare Island navy yard.

About three years ago the government went to great expense to clear the obstructions to the navigation of San Pablo bay and the approach to Mare Island navy yard, and, as a result, the channel was reported to be clear for the passage of the largest battleships. As proof that the work was honestly done, some of the deepest draft vessels afloat have navigated it with perfect security. Now the knocker steps in and says that it is shoaler than ever and appeals to the government to abandon the yard. The representation is, of course, false in the extreme, and who ever made it knows that it is. If the motive is to persuade the government to abandon the Mare Island navy yard it is an unworthy one, for there is absolutely no merit to it. Mare Island navy yard was never in a more efficient condition than it is today. It would be an outrage, of the grossest character, to entertain its abandonment, as these knockers would have it. It is located in the case of war in the best possible position; it has been well equipped by the government for any emergency at enormous expense, and is, notwithstanding the knocking, the most efficient navy yard on this coast and should ever remain so. If it is necessary to create an auxiliary yard and docks elsewhere on the shores of San Francisco let it be done without foolishly and falsely degrading Mare Island.

Another Oil War.

Another war has been inaugurated by the Standard Oil against the Union Oil Company. The latter is a California concern, backed by foreign capital, and is operating in the oilfields of this State. It is what many rightfully term a home company and has the first call for home support. The Standard is an intrusive foreign (Eastern) corporation in his State, of monopolistic tendencies so strong, that it wants to control everything in sight in its line of business. By devious methods, which have received of late the strongest judicial condemnation, in the Eastern and Southern States, it drove out every competitor from that field.

When it became an established fact that California was a great oilfield, the Standard set about getting control of the output in it. It never developed a well, however. It relied upon others assuming the risk of prospecting. Then it stepped in to take the fruits of successes. Its first defeat was in Los Angeles county, where the oil producers were able to hold the market because nearly the whole product of crude oil was locally consumed, and they held it. There was no chance for the Standard to make any railroad combinations in that section which would enable it to operate on its customary lines because it was too near the sea, and local refineries were established which took all the surplus output of crude oil not used as fuel. When the productive Santa Barbara oilfields were developed the Union Oil Company entered the field, obtained a Federal pipe line concession across the isthmus of Panama, despite the efforts of the Standard to prevent it, for the shipment of crude oil to Eastern and European ports and defeated the attempt to secure a pipe line monopoly in the Santa Maria valley. The Standard accepted its defeat and offered no further opposition to the Union's crude oil business. Since however, the Union has established big refineries at Port Harford and gone into the business of oil refining in competition with the Standard, having the open sea at its command to carry its cargoes to foreign markets. Now the Standard is said to have resorted to its cut-throat policy of underselling, in order to freeze out the refining of petroleum by the Union, as it has done with all its previous competitors in the business. The Union is, however, backed by a powerful English syndicate which proposes to "carry the war into Africa." The traffic in refined petroleum, or kerosene, as it is commonly known, has attained such vast proportions that the world at large is interested in the conflict, and to prevent a world-wide monopoly, its sale may become a subject of international agreement or of separate national control, following the example of Germany, in the interest of a fair competitive trade. The Standard's monopoly should be prevented at all hazards.

CHIPS FROM OTHER BLOCKS.

The way the Wisconsin State convention slumps into the hands of William Jennings Bryan is ominous for the prospects of other possible candidates. Minnesota is an adjoining State, yet Governor Johnson was scarcely mentioned by Wisconsin Democrats in convention assembled. What can be done in such a situation to save the country from the third Bryan candidacy? Apparently nothing. A real danger is that by running just close enough this year the Nebraskan will make his fourth candidacy inevitable in 1912.—Springfield Republican.

If it be true, as reported, that the obnoxious sulphur circular, 76, is to be withdrawn, pending a full investigation of the subject, California fruit growers will breathe easier, but they should have a care, meantime, to use as little sulphur as will do the work, and to be entirely conscientious about it. The digestive truth must finally prevail, and only the fullest and most careful investigation can determine what that truth is. It is not to be jumped at.—Sacramento Union.

THE DEMONSTRATIN' CAR.

This story may not be true, the down town motorcar dealer on whom it is laid denies it—but a certain poignancy still remains.

The dealer got out of his car at Eighth and Main streets Friday morning to buy a toy motorcar from a hawker who has a stand under the viaduct.

"I'll take that car," said the dealer, pointing at a toy which was spinning around on the table.

The hawker reached in his sack and drew out another

"That one ain't for sale," he said, grinning. "It's my demonstratin' car."

It is related that after that the hawker and the motorcar dealer cordially shook hands—but no sale was made.—New Orleans Picayune

COLORED EVIDENCE.

Evidence that has been tampered with is known as colored evidence and is like the lady's report of her physician's prescription.

After making a careful examination the physician said

"Madam, you are only a little run down. You need frequent baths and plenty of fresh air, and I advise you to dress in the coolest, most comfortable clothes, nothing stiff or formal."

When she got home her husband asked her what the physician had said. She replied

"He said I must go to the seashore, do plenty of automibiling and get some new summer gowns."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Having read in your most valuable paper, THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, of the subscription being raised for the entertainment of the coming fleet to the Pacific coast, we beg leave to call your attention to the fact that there are hundreds of families in this city on the verge of starvation, who are begging in the streets for food. We, the undersigned, believe that this money could be put to better use by making work for the unemployed men of this city, as they are more in need of food than a certain flagship is of a silver set or the fleet is of being entertained. IN SOCIETY

MRS. A. J PATTERSON.

The dramatic section of Ebell, with Mrs. Gordon M. Stolp as curator, presented a clever farce this afternoon, entitled "The Parliament of Servants," at the club house.

A large number of guests attended the affair and the following members of the section appeared in the cast: Mrs. A. E Nash, Mrs. Charles F. Gervin, Mrs. J Cal Ewing Mrs. Gordon M. Stolp, Mrs J. H. Hunt, Mrs. William H. George Mrs. Mary Hughes Patterson, and Mrs Felton Taylor. Miss Loretta Hoag is instructor for the section.

A feature of the program was a group of songs by Archie Macdonald, late of the Castle Square Theater of Boston. The accompanist was Mrs Hayward G Thomas.

Mrs. J. H Wright was chairman of the refreshment committee this afternoon assisted by Mrs. G. B. M. Gray, Mrs. A McMillan, Mrs. W. W. Crane, Mrs. S. S Ellinger, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Ed Evans, Mrs. R. W. Kinney.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. Edward Y. Gibson and her sister Miss Ruth Woodbury, will entertain tomorrow at a delightful bridge party to be given at the Gibson home in Alameda.

Mrs. Gibson and Miss Woodbury will be assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. C. J. Woodbury, Mrs. E. I. de Lavaaga, Miss Anita Thomson, Mrs. L. E. Hardy and Miss Hawley.

HOLIDAY AFFAIR.

One of the pretty affairs of Saturday was the Washington birthday party given by Mrs. Julius Joseph, at her home on East Eighteenth street. The home was decorated in a profusion of flags and streamers of the national colors, with a background of ferns and cherry branches.

The ladies of the round table who assisted Mrs. Joseph made charming pictures in their quaint gowns of colonial days. Alfred Duhy, Miss Nina Dosier, S. D. Edwards, Mrs. Mercy M. Constable and Clarence Sherman sang "The Star Spangled Banner," "Hail Columbia" and "America."

Mrs. Willard Gutches read an amusing dialect piece; Miss Nina Dosier gave "The Lorelei" in German. The evening's amusements concluded with a rifle contest by the guests and the writing of an original verse to George Washington. Mrs. Carr Hall and B. M. Lyons made best scores in shooting and Miss Nina Dosier and S. D. Edwards won for the best compositions. A repast was served.

Mrs. Josephs' guests were Mr and Mrs Van Newman, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Lyons, Mrs T. J. Lynch, T. E. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sherman, Mrs. R. A Mallen, Miss Nina Dosier, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Travis, Mrs. Stuart Merrill, J. J. Edwards, Mrs. Julia E. Travis, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gutches, Mrs. Mercy M. Constable, Mrs. Berger, Alfred Duhy, Mrs. W. D. Thomas, Mrs. Carry Hall, Simon Joseph, Miss Eloise Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Joseph.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss June Melquiond to Percy Hassard of Merose. The news was told at an informal party given Saturday evening at the home of the bride-elect in Berkeley. After a program of music hearts were played, the prizes going to Mrs. Kitty Stone, Mrs. C. H. Melquiond, Harry Ingler and George Cratiger.

Dancing followed the game of cards and among those who enjoyed the evening were Miss Shepard, Miss Cassey, Miss Mollie Duchraw, Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Harry Ingler, George Cratiger, Willie Kuhnle, Mrs. Louis Glamboni, Messrs. Rex and Henry Hassard, Misses Phoebe and Florence Mathews, Misses Marie and France Melquiond, Lester Melquiond, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Melquiond.

No date is decided upon for the wedding, but it will probably not take place until next year.

PERSONALS.

E Griswold is in Chico for a brief visit.

Miss Rena Davis has gone to Grass Valley

C. R. Elder is in Sacramento for a few days on business.

L. Manning was in Lemoore recently.

John L. Murphy and Melvin Prescott were in Sacramento last week.

HOME PARTY.

Miss Magie Rutherwood was hostess at a recent party given at her home on Andover street. The decorations were suggestive of Washington's birthday and small hatchets with cherries were the souvenirs. The prizes for the evening were carried off by Miss Bessie Howden, Miss Sarah Nelson, Miss Beulah Hutchens.

Miss Rutherford was assisted in her duties as hostess by her mother, Mrs William Rutherford. Miss Arline McCrimmon, Mrs. Ed Loomis, Mrs. Samuel Bennetts.

Those present were Misses Georgie Keiser, Georgie Loomis, Elsie Bowler, Gladys Pritchard, Cleo Pritchard, Hazel Tucker, Myrtle Tucker, Rosa Patterson, Arline McCrimmon, Sarah Nelson, Beulah Hutchens, Bessie Howden, May White, Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Hutchens, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Rutherford and the hostess.

THE COMUS COTILLION.

The closing assembly of the delightful series of winter dances given by the Comus Cotillion will take place Friday evening at Ebell Auditorium and promises to be one of the week's happy and pleasurable events.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

Mrs. C. S. Booth was hostess Saturday evening at a party for her son, Elmer. The decorations were appropriate to the holiday with the national colors everywhere in evidence. The favors were miniature cherry trees. Among those present were Miss Gladys Peterson, Miss Grace Hisen, Miss Emma Colgett, Miss Florence Bean, Miss Florence Summer, Reginald Strovers, George Allen, Hugo Alderman, Bert Booth, Elmer Booth, Ralph Westhall, Grover Peterson.

HOME WEDDING.

The marriage last evening of Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith and Harold Dillingham which took place at the home of the bride in San Francisco is of interest to society on both sides of the bay.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith as maid of honor and the three bridesmaids were Miss Mary Keeney, Miss Julia Langhorne and Miss Marion Newhall.

Walter Dillingham attended his brother as best man and the bride was given away by her brother Bayard.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony, the bride's table being adorned with pink blossoms, bows of pink tulle and pink-shaded candles. Seated with the bride and bridegroom were: Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith, Miss Helene Irwin, Miss Julia Langhorne, Miss Marion Newhall, Miss Mary Keeney, Miss Elizabeth Newhall, Miss Martha Calhoun, Miss Constance de Young, Walter Dillingham, Bayard Hyde-Smith, George Cameron, Frank King, Frank Preston, Athole McBean, Samuel Hopkins and Orville Pratt.

After a honeymoon spent in the southern part of the State Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham will sail March 10 for Honolulu where they are to make their future home.

CARD PARTY.

Mrs. James C. Jordan was hostess this afternoon at a delightful card party given at her home in San Francisco. An elaborate tea in an Italian setting followed the card game. The dining room was decorated with Italian statuary and the floor was completely covered with grass, the scene representing a garden.

Among the guests were Mrs. Alfred H. Voorhies, Mrs. Henry Butters, Mrs. J. C. Clark, Mrs. William Shannon, Mrs. E. B. Stone, Mrs. Richard Bayne, Mrs. Edward Walsh, Mrs Charles Krauthoff, Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Mrs. Eugene Bresse, Mrs. Sewell Dolliver, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. E. Bender, Miss Elizabeth Bender, Miss Helen Wilson, Mrs. Andrew Thorne, Mrs. George Hastings, Mrs. Charles Ford and Mrs. George Martin.

BENEFIT MUSICALE.

Mrs. G. E. Aitken of 1074 East Sixteenth street will be hostess next Tuesday afternoon, March 3, at a musicale to be given at her home for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Centennial Presbyterian Church. Miss Lucy Van de Mark will contribute to the program.

Mrs. W. M. Beckwith is president of the organization.

ELABORATE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Henry A. Butters will entertain next Thursday at an elaborate luncheon to be given at her home, "Alta Vista," in Piedmont. The complimented guests will be Mrs. William Griffith Henshaw and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler. An informal game of bridge will follow the luncheon Among those who will participate in the affair are Mrs. George Whitney, Mrs. Oscar Fitzallen Long, Mrs. Frank Havens, Mrs. William Pennoyer, Mrs. Prentiss Selby, Mrs. Ernest A. Heron, Mrs. J. M. Driscoll, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. Edward M. Walsh, Mrs. Joseph Stanford, Mrs. M. H. de Young, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. Ynez Shorb White, Mrs. Edward Barron, Mrs. Chas. Wingate, Mrs. Mark L. Requa. Mrs. Geo. de Golia, Mrs. Alexander Graceau, Mrs. Robert Augustus Bray and the Misses Marie and Marguerite Butters.

OAKLAND CLUB.

The Oakland Club has outlined an interesting program for tomorrow afternoon. At 1 o'clock the Current Events section held a session and later in the afternoon the members and their guests will enjoy a special program and a social hour. The feature of the day will be an address by the Rev. William Day Simonds on "Books That Have Shaped My Life."

An informal musical program is also announced for this occasion and the art exhibit by Mrs. Faucher Pettis opens at the club tomorrow.

TRANS-ATLANTIC STEAMERS PLAN TO HAVE DRESSMAKING PARLORS ON BOARD

—Chicago Tribune.

Some Health and Beauty Hints

Steaming the face will cause wrinkles rather than cure them, as it has a tendency to rob the tissues of oil.

Avoiding greasy food and wiping over the skin with an astringent daily will do much to shrink large pores.

For perspiring feet the following formula is efficient: Twenty scruples of salicylic acid, one dram of boric acid, one ounce of talcum powder.

As to the water used in the bath, it should be softened either with borax or bicarbonate of soda; even ammonia will be effective, but of all three it is better to use too little than too much.

It will often be found that acne pimples are caused by too coarse soap that has not been thoroughly rinsed off or has removed too much of the natural oil of the skin. change your soap until you find one that agrees with your skin.

Many unmusical children that are supposedly tone deaf learn rhythm and time, and finally become quite musical by being taught to dance. One child eaches the rhythm of the steps when dancing with another and this is one more reason why every child should be taught the art as early as possible.

A sure and easy method for cleaning the finger nails is otmake a paste of powdered borax and lemon juice. Rub this on and under the nails and leave for a few minutes, then scrub with a soft brush dipped in warm suds. Where the nails have been discolored by handling fruits, vegetables or simply need a good cleaning, this simple method will make them clear and white.

NATURE FORCES WOMAN TO BE A COQUETTE

Woman, having no other means at her disposal for vanquishing and attaching men to her chariot-wheels has for many long centuries had to rely entirely on coquetry.

It is not astonishing, therefore, that this weapon is deeply ingrained in the feminine soul—has become, in fact, an instinct at once conscious and involuntary—and that it now constitutes one of woman's most fundamental characteristics.

35,000 CLUBWOMEN DEMAND 'Equal Work and Pay' FOR TIRED New York Teachers

NEW YORK, Feb 25—Five hundred delegates, representing 35,000 clubwomen, met at the annual convention of the New York Federation of Women's Clubs at the Hotel Astor. They voted unanimously to support the "equal pay for equal work" campaign of the women teachers of this city and passed emphatic resolutions against the practice of vivisection.

Mrs. William Cummings Story, president of the Federation, occupied the chair. The resolution regarding the women teachers, which was only one of a number on which the Federation took a decided stand, was the first thing considered at the morning session.

After reciting in a preamble the great work done by the Interborough Association of Women Teachers of this city, which includes more than 4000 members, the Federation unanimously passed the resolution, offered by Mrs John Francis Yawger of this city.

The resolution indorses the so-called "Equal Pay" bill presented by the Association of Women Teachers, and urges the Legislature to pass the measure and the "Mayor" and the Governor to approve it.

On the question of vivsection there were some emphatic addresses. The speakers declared that it was unnecessary for the advancement of science and that it should be prohibited by law. The delegates were of one mind on the subject and a resolution was passed condemning it and urging legislative action.

The conflicting marriage and divorce laws of the several States came up for a general discussion, and the women delegates gave their opinion without reserve. Delegate after delegate arose to say that the conflicting laws were the cause of grave scandals.

Resolutions demanding more effective fines were passed, but these resolutions did not call for a Federal or uniform law for all the States.

The request of a deelgate in the rear that those in front remove their hats, so as to bring Chairwoman Story into view, was read gravely by Mrs. Story. It proved something of diversion from the topics that had been under discussion, but very few heeded the request. Perhaps a dozen in all in the front seats removed their hats.

The delegates put themselves on record as being in favor of more trade schools and of aiding the women and "poor whites" of the South. It was also decided to oppose rifle practice in the public schools as being dangerous and a menace to the public peace.

Stewart A. Woodford, Comptroller Metz, Superintendent of Schools Maxwell and others addressed the convention.

Women teachers will rally at half past 11 o'clock in the Assembly Hall at Normal College, Park avenue and Sixty-seventh street, and discuss plans for pushing the "equal pay" fight to a successful conclusion.

Miss Garce Strachan, president of the Interborough Association of Women Teachers, will make an address and will furnish her colleagues with accurate figures to disprove the statement of the men teachers that it will cost the city $10,000,000 to equalize the salaries.

THE LISSOME OLGA DENIES FAMOUS "CLINGING KISS"

Nethersole Pleads Total Ignorance

NEW YORK, Feb. 25—Another bubble has burst!

There is no "Nethersole kiss"—not in public! Folk who for years have regarded the lingering, wondrous osculatroy phenomenon in Miss Olga Nethersole's performance of "Carmen" as of so distinctive a type as to be classed by itself are all wrong. Miss Nethersole says so herself, and she ought to know.

She dispelled the illusion on the stage at Daly's Theater, and, moreover, she cast suspicion upon the Mary Garden kiss, which New York opera-goers have imagined was just a bit more lingering than the Nethersole variety It seems that the latter is simply a garden variety of osculation and quite as ordinary as the "Soul Kiss" kiss or the "Waltz Dream" kiss, or any other sort of kiss.

Miss Nethersole pricked the bubble as she sat swathed in furs. She just chanced to touch upon the subject while telling some facts concerning Paul Hervieu's 'The Awakening," in which she opens her three weeks' engagement at Daly's.

The actress vainly tried to remember whether there is a kiss at all in "The Awakening" and had to give it up. There is plenty of love in the play, anyhow, so, perhaps, the public will get some sort of a kiss

"Just let me tell you that, so far as I am concerned, there is no such thing as a 'Nethersole kiss,'" said the actress. "Miss Garden, I am sure, would tell you the same about the osculatory feat accredited to her. Mind you, though, I am now speaking of the stage. In private, we—— But that is another matter; quite another matter. I'll admit that I've heard of the kiss, but I can't see myself, and so if there is one I know nothing of it."

Miss Nethersole is enthusiastic concerning the Herlein drama. It is one of the two modern plays which Mounet-Sully, the noted French tragedian, has ever consented to present, and for some months it has been in the repertoire at the Comedie Francais, Paris. Mme. Sarah Bernhardt gave a French presentation in London, but the first English production will be made there by Miss Nethersole, following her American season.

"I own the English rights, and it was through an arrangement with me that Mme. Bernhardt appeared in the role of Therese de Megee," she said. "Charles Stevenson takes the role of the king, created by Sully, and it is an honor he appreciates. There are two other leading roles—great roles, I might say—one of which falls to me and one to Frank Mills, an American actor, who was taken to London ten years ago by Charles Frohman, and who has not since acted in New York. I was glad to give Mme. Bernhardt permission to present the play in London, for it was she who induced me to appear in Paris.

"One day, ten years ago, she said to me, 'Come to Paris with "Carmen" and you'll have Paris at your feet.' Last year I went and after the second act I received the ovation of my life. While I was still overcome with it all Bernhardt came to my dressing room. 'There! Was I not right?' she said. 'You see I prophesied truly.'"

HOW FAR SHOULD A WOMAN GO TO PROTECT LOVED ONES

How far should a woman go to protect her loved ones? What is the limit of the sacrifices she should make, or is there a limit, even death?

For the best thought, contained in less than 200 words, in answer to these questions, THE TRIBUNE will pay $10. This contest is open to all women readers of THE TRIBUNE and will close March 1.

To have contributions considered they must be written on one side of the paper, with name and address given.

Address all communications to the editor of the Woman's Page, THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.

How far a woman should go to protect her loved ones, is ground for lots of good thought. So far as protecting them in accidents and perils we seem to be governed like our animal friends, with no thought of self. It is mother's instinct and God given.

The mother's sacrifice and love should begin at her child's infancy, by training and teaching it the way it should go. Her whole life is one continual sacrifice to her children.

So many families are so badly scattered after they are grown, all a mother can do is to pray for them as only a mother can. If we find one is weak and inclined to fall by the wayside; or is ill, or a cripple, we will love that one all the more and if possible sacrifice our strength, yet a little more for him. A mother's love is indescribable; it is divine.

So we cannot say what we would do till the opportunity presents itself, for we are so constituted that we protect our loved ones by a power we cannot control.

MRS. E. A. BYER.

TALL, BLONDE, HANDSOME MAN 'SOFT-SOAPED' HER

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—There is a chain on the Brownstein door and massive bolts and bars. No more does a cheery "Come in" greet all who knock. A little peephole opens cautiously, an eye peeps fearfully at the caller, and a timorous voice says: "Have you any soap with you?" If you have no soap, then you may enter the Brownstein home at 327 East Twenty-sixth street.

One afternoon, a few days ago a man called on Mrs. Fanny Brownstein with soap to sell.

"He was a tall, blonde, handsome gentleman," says Mrs. Brownstein, "with the most winning ways. He said he had the most wonderful soap in the world—so sweet to smell. He held it up and I smelled it sweet perfume and dreamed sweet dreams and the children came home from school two hours later and waked me up. The gentleman with the marvelous soap was gone, so was all my money which was hidden in the cupboard—enough to buy a great many cakes of ordinary soap with, and too much to pay for the smell of even the most wonderful soap on earth. For some time there will be no more soap in my house." And Mrs. Brownstein pointed with pride to the collection of locks and bars.

WOMAN IS FINED $5 FOR SMOKING CIGARETTES

Miss Katherine Mulcahy said in the Night Court, "I'll allow no man to stop me from smoking a cigarette; I have as much right to smoke as any man!"

Miss Mulcahy was the first victim of Alderman Tim Sullivan's new anti-cigarette law, and Magistrate Kernochan was reluctantly compelled to fine her $5, although he could not contradict her assertion of equal rights.

MARRIED 100 YEARS

From Vienna comes a story of an aged couple who have been married 100 years. They live in the Hungarian village of Isonbolgi. The husband is said to be 120 years old and his wife 116. They have no fewer than 712 decendents. The old couple live in a modest cottage: they are almost blind, and spend most of their time sleeping. The patriarch can still smoke his pipe, however, and from time to time he drinks a glass of wine. The couple have never seen a railway train.

Mother Aids Husband To Prosecute Daughter

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—"Well, you are getting just what you deserve, I will make it my business to see that you get all that is coming to you!" Thus did Charles W. Gengenbach, a jeweler of 66 Greenwich avenue, greet his daughter, Catherine, in the Tombs Police Court.

Showing no trace of paternal love, Gengenbach turned a deaf ear to the pleadings of his daughter, who, as she was about to take the veil in a convent, fled to Chicago with Richard Bell, a married man with two children. At the same time $1500 worth of jewelry, which she and Bell are charged with stealing, disappeared.

Seemingly unmoved by the grief-stricken but unrelenting faces of her parents, the young woman, as she and Bell were being led across the Bridge of Sighs, threw herself into her lover's arms careless of the punishment in store for her.

The couple were traced to Chicago by detectives and were arrested in a pawnshop in that city. It is said by the police that they fitted up a flat there in most comfortable fashion. Brought back to this city, the young woman faced arraignment calmly.

To her mother's piteous cry: "Katie, why did you do this thing?" the young woman replied:

"Forgive me, mother; I could not her sobbing mother.

help it Richard has been so good to me." She would say no more to Gengenbach did not share his daughter's estimate of Bell's goodness and was only restrained from assaulting the prisoner by the latter's counsel, Edward Carpel, who held the irate jeweler until court officers came to his assistance.

When asked how she wished to plead, Miss Gengenbach waived until Bell had waived examination, when she did the same thing. They were held in $1000 bail each.

It is not expected that either Mr. or Mrs. Gengenbach will relent in their determination to prosecute their daughter. The father was contemptuous in his manner to the young woman, while the mother, though weeping bitterly, seemed equally unforgiving. Miss Gengenbach is twenty-five years old, while Bell is twenty-nine.

FEARLESS WOMAN CAPTURES ROBBER

Beaten, Kicked and Knocked Down, She Fights Him Until Police Arrive.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Sarah E. Carner made out her list, steak, potatoes and so on, and left her flat on the second story of 784 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn. Returning from the butcher's, the baker's and the candlestick maker's, Mrs. Carner added a burglar to her list and got him after expending a very little of the bravery she possesses. It is a great compliment to a bulldog to say that Mrs. Sarah has a tenacity almost equal to its.

As Mrs Carner re-entered her home Thomas Richert, as he calls himself, confronted her.

"You yell and I'll kill you," said Richert, seizing her.

Mrs. Carner dropped her parcels and grabbed Richert, a big fellow. Also she yelled at the top of her lungs. The burglar threw her and, cursing, kicked her; then jumped from the rear kitchen window.

The determination of an angry woman came into play; Mrs. Carner ran downstairs and again grabbed Richert whose fall of twenty feet had lamed him. She clung to him as he fled through the hall to the street, although he struck her in the face repeatedly.

Passersby, then policemen, overpowered Richert, who said he lives at a Mills Hotel in New York. He was held in $3000 bail at the Manhattan avenue Police court.

Epitaph Boosts Cupid

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 24.—Hugh De Witte, a Mexican war veteran at the Indiana State Soldiers' Home who died aged 83 years, was buried beneath a tombstone on which he himself had carved this epitaph:

A bachelor lies beneath this sod,
Who disobeyed the laws of God;
Adieu to others here I give—
Don't live a batch as I did live.

LYDIA E.
PINKHAM'S
VEGETABLE COMPOUND

LYDIA E PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of Feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FIX RULES FOR SHIPS WHEN THE FLEET COMES

ANCHORAGE AREA AND FAIRWAY PROVIDED FOR THE FLEET.

Fairway for Evans' Lads Entering and Going.

Deputy Collector N S Farley who was delegated by Collector of the Port Stratton to take charge of the plans for policing the harbor on the arrival of Admiral Evans fleet and during their stay here has submitted a series of rules which have been agreed upon by the committee and if they are acceptable to the government at Washington they will govern the movements of all vessels when the fleet is welcomed

The following are the most important points

Anchorage area for the fleet Extend a straight imaginary line from the end of Folsom street wharf to a point approximately one-eighth of a mile south of the southerly outer end of the ferry slip at Alameda mole

Fairway must be maintained during the day of the fleets entrance and of its departure

All vessels are prohibited from occupying stationary semi-stationary or viewing position along fairway excepting on the north line between Lime Point and Alcatraz Island and on the south line between the point of beginning northerly of Fort Point and a point where the extension of the center line of Hyde street would intersect said southerly boundary of the fairway

Only vessels propelled by internal motive power of their own or row boats will be permitted to occupy positions on said southerly line

All vessels may occupy positions north of said northerly line but sailing vessels must keep clear of all other vessels

All excursion vessels which proceed to sea to meet the fleet will be prohibited from re-entering except in accordance with the rules governing vessels invited board

All ferry boats and other vessels destined between San Francisco and easterly or southerly points are prohibited from casting off lines at San Francisco or from entering or crossing the fairway south of said straight imaginary line between Yerba Buena Island and said point northerly of Fort Point from the time the first vessel of the fleet passes said line extended from the light house on Angel Island through the most southerly point of Alcatraz Island until the last of the fleet has passed half an hour to the southward of a straight imaginary line extended from the center line of Mission street

PROMINENT DOCTOR

Says Pneumonia Weather Is Here and Cautions Against Common Colds.

Just at this particular season pneumonia is very prevalent (says one of our most prominent physicians) and considering the large percentage of deaths that result from it being more fatal than smallpox, every one should use all precaution to avoid its malignant grip The large majority of cases of pneumonia are the direct result of an acute or lingering cold which most people consider trivial but which it is extreme folly to neglect

The doctor also gives a prescription which he says is probably the most effective known to the profession for the quick relief of coughs colds and throat troubles It is as follows

Two ounces of glycerine, half ounce concentrated oil of pine half pint first class whisky Dose to be mixed well and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours The bottle is to be well shaken each time

This simple preparation can be easily mixed at home the ingredients being obtainable from any good drug store Care should be taken to get only the real concentrated oil of pine which always comes put up for medicinal use in half ounce vials inclosed in tin screw top cases The bulk oils and the patent medicine imitations frequently put out in wooden boxes are to be avoided as they are dangerous

Married Women

Every woman loves a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS NOTES

Beaten at Home.—After lying at his home for several hours in an unconscious condition from the effects of a beating he received at the hands of two unknown men, Timothy Sullivan was brought to the Central Emergency Hospital yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. At the hospital he was treated for contusions and abrasions of the nose and face.

Temperance Assembly.—Plans are being completed for a large temperance assembly to be held in this city March 17 to 19, at which prominent speakers from San Francisco and vicinity are to be asked to address the public meetings, and in which a number of well known temperance workers from all parts of the country are expected to participate.

Rehearings Granted. — The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday entered several orders denying petitions for rehearing in a number of important cases, including that of B. Brooks Lee, convicted of using the mails to defraud; Gustav Holmgreen, convicted of fraudulent naturalization.

Big Can Contract.—The California Fruit Canners' Association has closed a deal with the American Can Company of New York and San Francisco by which the latter is to supply the former with three million cans during the next five years. The cans are to be supplied at the rate of 60,000,000 annually.

Druids Entertain.—The two leading officials of the Druids, Supreme Arch E. F. Winchler and Supreme Secretary Henry Freudenthal, who arrived here a few days ago to visit the 6000 members of the order in San Francisco, were given a reception at the Fairmont last night.

Accuse Policeman.—A complaint was filed yesterday before the Board of Police Commissioners by Captain Mooney of the North End station, charging Policeman S. W. McDonald with conduct unbecoming an officer. Failing to get any money from the proprietor he went behind the bar and helped himself to the contents of the cash register.

Reward for Comiskey.—For knowledge of the whereabouts of Patrick Comiskey, a saloon proprietor on the water front, who mysteriously disappeared February 11, a reward has been offered by his friends and relatives.

Homestead Decision.—The Supreme Court decided yesterday that the giving of a deed of trust on a homestead did not constitute the abandonment of it, in the appeal of Emma J. McLeod against Joseph Moran.

Master Loses License.—Captain Dan Thomsen Jr., master of the redstack tugboat Liberty, has been suspended for sixty days for negligence in towing the ship Shenandoah, which, while fast to the tug, went on the shoals of the Potato Patch off the Heads on the afternoon of December 26 last.

Railroad Progress.—The Southern Pacific announced yesterday that its tracks on the new Peninsula Railroad have reached a point within two miles of Vasona on the cut-off line from Mayfield to Los Gatos. Vasona is to be the junction point of the Mayfield line with the old narrow gauge route out of San Jose to Santa Cruz.

Banker Myer's Anniversary.—Banker Daniel Meyer will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of his birth next Saturday. Although the veteran banker was born eighty-four years ago, he has not seen as many anniversaries of the day as a youth who attains his majority and becomes a voter. Mr. Meyer was born February 29.

Two Ships Left.—The battleship Nebraska, having gone to an anchorage off California City to take on coal, left the cruisers Tennessee and Washington the only warships in man-o'-war row. Both of them received visitors yesterday afternoon.

New Yorkers Arrive.—Eighteen cabin and eleven steerage passengers came from the southern coast in the Pacific Mail steamer Newport, reaching port early yesterday morning. All but a few of the passengers were from New York.

Architects' Exhibit.—The Society of Architects, all graduates from the Ecole de Beaux Arts, yesterday opened an exhibition of architectural drawings in the board room of the merchants' exchange.

Succeeds Brown.—O. M. Goldaracena has been appointed Consul for Uruguay at this port, vice J. Dalzell Brown, according to advices received by Collector Stratton yesterday from the Department of State through the Secretary of the Treasury.

Stoddard Praises Sterling.—Poet Stoddard pays tribute to Poet Sterling in an artistic bit of verse in the book review department of Sunset Magazine for March. The same magazine contains a notable story, "The Revenge of Eme Lido," a thrilling yarn by Lucile Vivien Pierce, dealing with early life in Los Angeles.

Find Floating Body.—The body of an unidentified man, dressed in the garb of a cook, was found yesterday afternoon floating under a pier in a lumber yard at Sixteenth and Kentucky streets. From the appearances of the body it has been in the water two months.

Pioneer Daughters Receive. — The Daughters of California Pioneers held their February reception yesterday afternoon at their headquarters in the Pioneer building and 200 invited guests enjoyed their hospitality. Miss Julia M. Neppert, the president of the society, presided.

Broker Suspended.—George A. Reiner, stock broker, was yesterday suspended from membership in the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board. His debts are said to aggregate $3500. A. L. Hudgens, Nat Boas and W. A. Muir, members of the same board, are said to be the principal creditors.

Medical Alumni to Meet.—The semi-annual meeting of the Alumni Association, College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, will be held in the lecture hall of the college at 8 p. m. February 26.

Riot Charges Dismissed.—Upon the motion of Special Prosecutor Porter Ashe the charges of conspiracy to commit a riot, which have been pending nearly a year against John Mitzen, Rudolph Schmidt, George Peterson, J. C. Kyle and J. M. McDonald, striking carmen, were yesterday dismissed.

Two Indictments.—The federal grand jury reported the following indictments yesterday: John A. Johnson, for cutting timber on government land; Lorenzo Moll, for fencing 1800 acres of government land.

Walker Demurs.—David F. Walker, president of the defunct California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, filed a demurrer in the United States District Court yesterday to the proceedings in bankruptcy on the general ground that the petition is ambiguous, uncertain and does not contain facts to constitute a cause for bankruptcy.

Pays Penalty.—The petitions of Gustav Holmgren, convicted of perjury in connection with a naturalization application, and B. Brooks Lee, convicted of misusing the mails, for a rehearing were denied yesterday by Judges Gilbert, Ross and Morrow in the United States Circuit Court of Appeal.

Woodmen's Camp.—A new camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was recently organized and instituted at Hillcrest, San Mateo county. Special Deputy H. V. Rees was the instituting officer.

Dies After Carousal.—John Craven, who was taken to the central emergency hospital from a saloon at 759 Bryant street, Sunday night in a condition of stupor, died yesterday morning at the hospital. An inquest will be held and John Guy, the proprietor of the saloon, questioned. Craven, who lived at 2059 Fonsom street, leaves a widow and two sons.

S. S. Co. Wins Decision.—The decision of the United States District Court by which the Boston Steamship Company was awarded damages because of a collision between the steamers Tremont and Ramona was affirmed yesterday by the United States Circuit Court of Appeal.

Talks On Tuberculosis.—Dr. F. M. Pottenger of Los Angeles, who for many years has made a special study of pulmonary diseases, delivered a lecture on tuberculosis at Century Hall last night. Dr. Pottenger made a plea for the erection of a State institution for the treatment of tuberculosis.

Boards Differ.—City Attorney Long advised the board of education yesterday that it had no power to compel the board of public works to accept bids for installing the heating plant at the Bay View School, its authority ending with the approval of the plans and specifications upon which bids were invited. Since this was done the matter has dragged, and there has been some friction between the two boards, but the city attorney is unable to find any way for the school board to hurry the board of works.

Will Hold Book Fest.—The Sequoia Club will hold a book fest on Thursday evening next, when each member is asked to bring a volume, preferably of her own work, for the establishment of a library. The members are asked to appear in something symbolic of the book presented. Miss Dean will be the hostess of the evening.

Owes Defunct Bank.—Among the liabilities of Charles Schwartz, the plumber on Mission street, near Seventeenth, who filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday, was $1000 owing to the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company.

Reshipping East.—Southern Pacific freight officials state that large quantities of eggs and butter which were shipped here last fall and put in cold storage are now being reshipped back east because of unfavorable market conditions here. According to the railroad people, the merchants concerned in this matter stand to lose by the transaction $800 a car or a total of $64,000.

Seek Missing Man.—Eastern relatives of Joseph M. Thomas, formerly an enlisted man attached to one of the regiments in San Francisco, are anxiously searching for some trace of him. His mother, Mrs. Amelia Thomas, lives at 81 Hooper street, Brooklyn.

How to Enter the Hunt

THE TRIBUNE'S Proverb Hunt is a contest of skill and diligence. Every day for fifty days there will appear a picture or cartoon representing a familiar and commonly used English Proverb or Quotation.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, have been selected from a standard work on English Proverbs and placed under seal. This correct list will be published with the announcement of the winners.

Cut out the picture and the answer blank which will be published every day, commencing Wednesday, Feb. 5, and save until the close of the contest. This will enable you to think about the answer and afford ample time for all members of the family to offer suggestions. As all editions of THE TRIBUNE will be quickly sold out every day, we cannot guarantee to supply back numbers of the paper after the regular edition is sold out. To insure getting THE TRIBUNE order it delivered at your home. One week will be allowed after the publication of the last picture for answers to be sent in. This will afford time for careful answer of the final picture, as well as re-examination of all the pictures. The answers may be filled out in any legible way, by handwriting, typewriting, pencil, ink, etc. Address all answers to the Proverb Hunt Manager.

Rules of the Hunt

1—The Proverb Hunt is open to all, but contestants must indicate the proverb each picture represents on the blank provided therefor—and all may compete without charge or consideration of any kind, but only one member of a family will be entitled to receive a prize.

2—Contestants may submit as many answers to each proverb as they desire, but each must be upon a separate blank.

3—Blanks may be filled out in any legible way, by pen, pencil or typewriter, etc.

4—Answers must be sent in only at the close of the contest; all answers must be in THE TRIBUNE office one week after the last or fiftieth picture has appeared.

5—All answers must be plainly addressed to the Proverb Editor, THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal. They may be left at the office or mailed, in which event they should be fully prepaid.

6—Employes of THE TRIBUNE and members of their families are positively barred from competing for rewards in this contest.

7—In making the awards, the judges—whose names will be announced in due course—will take into account the similarity of the answers to the exact wording of the proverbs as selected by the Proverb Editor; spelling, punctuation and the correct construction are the essentials that will be graded. Reasonable neatness will be taken into consideration. The awards of the judges will be final in all cases.

8—The first prize will go to the person answering all, or nearest all, of the fifty proverbs correctly. The person answering the second largest number correctly, or nearest so, will receive second prize, etc. In event of tie the prizes will be divided.

9—In the event of a tie for any prize, the value of such will be equally divided, or a prize of similar character and value awarded each tying contestant.

10—THE TRIBUNE reserves the right to make any changes or additions to these conditions that it may deem desirable in the interest of contestants. The good faith and honor of THE TRIBUNE are pledged to insure a "square deal" for all.

List of answers is deposited with Security Bank and Trust Co., 11th and Broadway.

REASONS FOR BILLY NOLAN BACKING KELLY DISCOVERED

Jack (Twin) Sullivan Is Very Anxious for Match With Young Ketchel--- McFarland Announced.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

With a large, heavy set face, strong enough in every particular to be set on the shoulders of a welterweight; well browned from exposure to the sun, a characteristic pug nose that seems well fitted for his name and a big good natured smile coupled with a rather awkward bashfulness, Eddie Kelley was brought up by his training colleagues to be introduced. It was the first time that I had met the big-little fellow, and I was quite surprised at his shyness, but when he grasped my hand and shook it, believe me, I had not the slightest doubt but that the shyness was all on the surface and that he is well able to hold his own with any man in the world near his weight, when it comes to strength.

He grabbed my hand by the finger tips and the squeeze was a natural one for not the slightest effort was noticeable on his pugnacious and yet good natured face. As soon as the introduction was over Kelley pulled away with the excuse that it was time to work in the gymnasium and as with all young fighters he seemed glad that the time for the work out had arrived.

Nolan Not on Hand.

Billy Nolan was not on hand to do the boosting for the boy and for that reason those present who were looking for information as to the abilities of the Buffalo fighter had to content themselves with hunting their own dope. For my part I am rather glad that William was not there for I have learned what I have every reason to believe was the cause for his picking up the ex-newsboy at this time and backing with the $2500 guarantee that gave him a try at the champion in his class when it looked as if he did not have a chance of getting the match.

Had William been on hand, this information would not have leaked out, but during his absence Harry Silver, who brought Kelly to the coast, told of the impressions that the fighter made on the manager when that party had Battling Nelson in charge.

The first took place at Essington, Pennsylvania, where Battling Nelson was training for a scrap with Abe Attell which was to be decided at Philadelphia. Eddie Kelly was engaged as a sparring partner to the Battler and everything went along nicely for a time. Nelson and Kelly had some sort of a row soon after and it was thought best by Nolan to let the training partner go.

When Kelly was about to pack his things and be on his way it was suggested by the Battler that they call Kelly back and square things with him until that afternoon, at which time he (Nelson) would put the gloves on with him and give him a sound beating for what he thought was freshness.

Kelly Tried Out.

Kelly fell for the trap and consented to remain and that afternoon, when the men went to the gymnasium, Nolan refused to allow any one but himself in the room and in the meantime the large gymnasium gloves had been changed for the smaller fighting ones. The Battler had made every preparation to give the scrappy fellow from Buffalo a sound beating and knock him out if possible and Nolan believing that it would prove a good work out for his protege agreed to the scheme.

Time was called and on came the Battler with fire in his eye. He was about to get his satisfaction, and he wanted it quick. Silver vouches for Nolan saying that he has never seen the Dane go after a man faster and things looked bad for Kelly.

The four rounds over, however, imagine the surprise of Nolan and Nelson to find that the little fellow was not only still on his feet but he, too, had become mad and wanted to finish the thing up. Both fighters were a little the worse for the hard four rounds they had fought but according to the information one, Kelly, was not any worse off than Nelson himself.

Kelly Beats Welterweight.

This, it is said, was Nolan's first impression of what a tough fellow Kelly was, but later he had another opportunity to learn that Kelly was able to go some. After the Attell fight, Nolan took his fighter on the road and took Kelly along as the sparring partner.

Nelson while on the road was always willing to box with any one that the management would provide and this, of course, made him a great drawing card.

A certain welter-weight by the name of Jack Hamilton, who was doing some good milling around the eastern States at that time, called often and asked for a chance to box a few rounds in exhibition with the Battler. Nelson had sprained his arm a short time previous and Nolan kept stalling Hamilton off. He was not to be denied the chance to slow, however, and after several attempts Nolan was about to tell him to stay away when Kelly volunteered to give the welter-weight a try-out. Nolan objected, saying that the fellow was too big, but the newsboy persisted and finally he was put on with the welter.

The manager sat in the wings of the slow house ready to call time if Hamilton got too rough or showed an inclination to hurt the lighter man. As he sat there waiting to call time to save the sparring partner, think of his surprise when Kelley walloped the fellow all about the place, almost putting him away in the three rounds they boxed.

Nolan Takes Big Chance.

From that time Nolan has had a great regard for the little fellow's ability and he would have taken him under his wing at that time had it not been that Nelson and Kelly could not agree very well. Whether or not Kelly can land these hard wallops on the elusive Attell is hard to say, and Nolan as well as anyone else, is taking a chance in predicting that he will show up with the clever one as he did with Nelson.

Nolan was impressed enough to make him take the chance he is, though, and judging from his work of yesterday he will certainly keep Attell on the move, for he is just such a fast comer as Nelson and is, with this strength and speed, a fairly clever boxer.

Yesterday after his work in the gymnasium he weighed 137½ pounds, and as he has to make 122 about two hours before the contest he should be able to make the weight and be strong.

Sullivan Wants Ketchel.

The Sullivan twins have nothing against Young Ketchel, and to their credit be it said they are not in any way trying to take any of the credit of his victory of Mike (Twin) from him, but they are dead anxious to keep him in the family circle for a while yet, and yesterday afternoon Mike was sent to San Francisco by Brother Jack with instructions to make a match with Ketchel if possible.

Jack (Twin) feels confident that he has solved the problem of how to beat Ketchel and says he will make all sorts of side bets that he is his master. Jack claims the right to fight at 158 pounds, which he claims is the middle-weight limit with Ketchel, who he says is posing as a middle-weight. He is able to make a lighter weight than this, however, and will take off a few extra pounds for the match.

Yesterday he stepped on the scales in the presence of the writer and just balanced the beam at 160 pounds.

Jack will ask that the weight be fixed at 147 pounds threeh ours before the contest, but in a pinch he will agree to make 156 pounds, and as this is only one pound more than Ketchel has asked him to make there is some chance of this contest being the St. Patrick's Day attraction.

Berger Announces McFarland.

Sam Berger announced last night that he had practically signed Packy McFarland, the Chicago light-weight, and the winner of the Britt-Nelson annual contest at Los Angeles for his March attraction.

McFarland will be welcomed by the fans, who have read so much of him, and there is little doubt but that he will prove a good card.

Champions Win At Basketball

BERKELEY, Feb. 25.—The crack Mussetine basketball five, the champions of the world, defeated the Freshmen at Harmon gymnasium last night by a score of 33 to 27. It was a very snappy contest and was witnessed by a large number of students and friends of the players. In the preliminary the U. C. freshmen defeated the Presidio Post team 55 to 6.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX LEAVE FOR COAST NEXT SATURDAY

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—The Chicago White Sox are scheduled to assemble here this week and will start on their journey for the Coast Saturday. The entire team, with the exception of Fielder Jones, will report here. Jones is to join the team on the Coast. Thirty players will be in the special trains besides the newspaper correspondents, and rooters.

The team will make no long stops on the way to the Coast. Players Tannehill, Donohue and Sullivan are already on hand for the start West. Freddie Parent is expected Wednesday, and George Davis has written that he will be here Friday. Comiskey has heard from all the other veterans on the team and all have promised to be here a day or two before the special is billed to leave. The men have all signed up for the season except Jones, and he has agreed to the terms offered him by Comiskey and has promised that he will be ready for action as soon as his charges arrive at Los Angeles. A big band of rooters will at the depot to see the Sox off.

The White Sox Rooters' Association will give a grand ball to the team and its supporters next Thursday night as a preliminary send-off.

YOUNG KETCHEL WAS TURNED DOWN FOR JOB BY TWIN MIKE

Strange things come to pass, even in pugilism, as was illustrated in a little confab between Mike Twin Sullivan and Young Ketchel when the pair met in a cafe in San Francisco last night.

"Hello, Mike," said the sportive looking Ketchel as he walked into the place.

"Howdy, Ketch," responded the twin.

"Say Mike," continued Ketchel, "do you remember when you were in Butte, Montana, for your fight with Jack Dougherty?"

"I remember it well," returned Mike.

"Well, then, you likely remember me, as trying to get a job with you, don't you?"

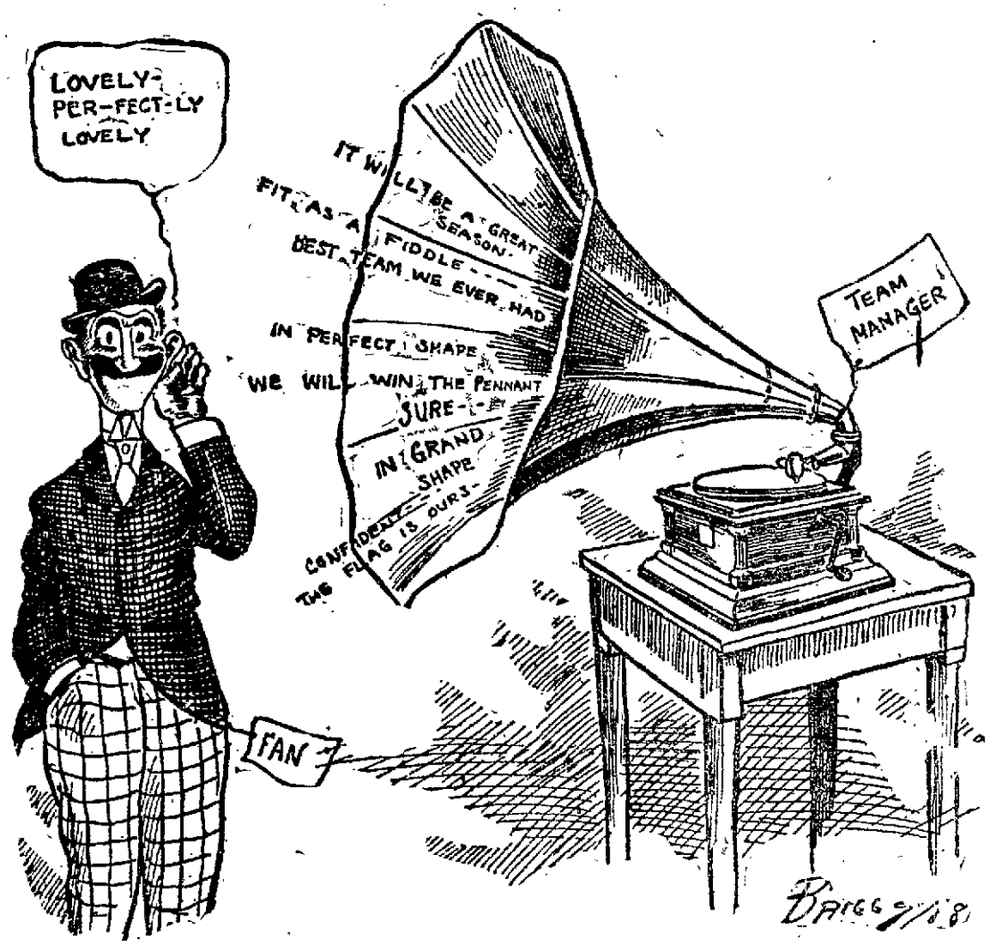

"Yes" responded Mike, "I remember it well. You called at my training quarters and wanted a job as sparring partner. At that time there was another strong young fellow there named Joe Gorman and he also wanted the job. He bulled me about being able to give me some good workouts, and I took him as sparring partner instead of you, Ketch."

"Yes Mike, and I needed the money, then," said Ketchel.

"I am pretty sorry now that I didn't use you as a sparring partner then," returned Mike, "and you might have keeled me over at the training camp, which would have forestalled that little sad affair for me at Colma last Saturday."

Then Mike ordered for the boys, while he still lamented the fact that he chose Joe Gorman instead of Young Ketchel as his sparring partner at Butte.

THE SAME OLD TUNE, IN THE SAME OLD WAY, WITHOUT ALTERATION UP TO THIS DAY

WEST OAKLAND CLUB WILL HOLD ITS SHOW HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Unless all indications fail, the coming boxing show at the West Oakland Club's pavilion on Eight and Pine streets, next Thursday night, will be a tobasco show.

"Kid" Harrison of Seattle, Washington, and Lew Powell, who was the best of the six furlong boys in San Francisco, will hook up in the main event.

Kid North, Joe Gans' side kick, has taken Harrison under his fatherly wing and the buff colored guide, friend and philosopher of Gans' declares that the new man is "sharp as a yen hok and keen as a razab."

Powell has been prepping himself carefully for the battle. The outcome of this contest means much to the winner, as the present paucity in the ranks of the lightweights will make the victor in Thursday night's show a card for one of the San Francisco clubs.

Harrison has been working faithfully. He has heard much of Powell's fleetness over the futurity course, but he thinks that he will be able to outdo the San Franciscan. Both boys fight rapidly and they should put up a show worth the price of admission.

Simpson is trying to develop some new talent, and with this end in view, has put little Ritchie on with Harry Dell again. Ritchie was on at the last show the West Oakland Club and his stylish ring manners created a favorable impression with the fight fans. Those who saw him defeat Dell last time think that the lad is a comer. He is fast as lightning and has a punch in his left hand that is calculated to stop the rushing boys.

Dell and Ritchie will furnish the semi wind-up. Both the main event and the semi wind-up give promise of being excellent bouts.

Young Dempsey, Gregory Mitchell's champion that was, is to meet Charley Riley in the third six round bout of the evening. Dempsey is in good shape for the battle and he should be able to make the clever Riley move some if he expects to be returned the victor. These boys will make ringside weight at 125 pounds, and Young Dempsey declares that he will make the weight if he has to amputate a leg.

Billy O'Brien and Joe Baker are down for four rounds. Both boys can slam away with great effect, and they should put up a rip, roaring battle.

Young Turner, champion of the newsboys of Alameda county, is to defend his title against Kid Alameda. Turner is a favorite with the local fans. He is a slashing little millman and he expects to hang one on Kid Alameda before the end of the bout.

Johnny Stanton and Kid Lockey will furnish the curtain raiser in a four round bout.

Mr. Simpson is making a bid for the patronage of the old four round patrons of the game in San Francisco and will put his show on early and run it off without interruption so that all the fans who may attend from San Francisco, will have ample time to catch an early return boat to the city.

All the broad gauge trains coming from San Francisco, hesitate one block from the arena every twenty minutes.

ENGLISH PROMOTER MAKES BID FOR A BURNS-JOHNSON CONTEST

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—A cablegram was received here yesterday from William C. J. Kelly, boxing promoter of London, stating that he would give Jack Johnson $5000 win, lose or draw, to fight Tommy Burns in England before June 10. The cablegram says that Burns has agreed to fight and has deposited $2000 with A. G. Spalding Brothers as a forfeit, and that Kelly's club had deposited a similar amount to insure the match.

"Johnson must post $2000 within forty-eight hours to bind the match," cabled Kelly. He also cabled that Jeffries could referee. Kelly stated that this was positively the best that the club would do.

Evidently the British promoters have seen some of Jimmy Coffroth's three sheets, for this looks like a bit of what Cockey O'Beron of Tiburon would term "a bally bumping bit of awdvertising doancherknoew."

The sporting editor of THE TRIBUNE pointed out in the columns of this paper some time ago that a match between Burns and Johnson for England was a probability.

Some time back Burns wrote to the sporting editor of this paper stating that he had a proposition on wherein he expected to glue his person snugly to about $40,000. At that time it was pointed out in this paper that Burns evidently had his eye on a Johnson match with Johnson.

Just who Mr. William C. J. Kelly is is not well known here, but that name looks like a sort of impost. The William is all right, but the initials put a sort of damper on any gent who wishes to break into the fight business.

Our own Mr. Coffroth's name is James W. No one knows what the "W." stands for, and Mr. Coffroth, with a Chesterfieldian grace, has never enlightened anyone as to why the "W." The fight fans of San Francisco know Coffroth as Jimmy. To a man in a box car it looks as though Mr. Kelly should ditch the hyphenated name before he begins to burst into the social set as a fight promoter.

If such names are allowed in a fight register we may expect to see a card shortly emblazoned: "James Fitz-Herbert O'Brien, agent, Frankfurter Trust."

Johnson will hardly pay heed to Mr. Burns mumbkin man, Mr. William J. C. Kelly. When Little Arthur and the Caribou champion get ready to hook up Mr. J. Coffroth, gent. of San Francisco, will be there with a little bid for the entertainment that will make Mr. Kelly's offer look like a pallid oyster in a fifteen cent stew.

Barbarians Will Play Corinthians

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—A meeting of the Barbarian Football and Cricket Club is to be held tomorrow night at No. 1658 Golden Gate avenue, at which some important business will be discussed. The club now has a membership of more than sixty and is daily receiving applications from athletes, who are interested in the games, which the club was formed to foster.

The cricket team played the Corinthians at Golden Gate Park last Sunday and made a good showing, although the game was not decisive. The same teams will meet again next Sunday at 9.30, at the baseball grounds in the park.

Masters Wins a Second Time

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 25.—The Storey belt and handball championship of the university was won by William H. Masters, '09. In the finals he defeated K. I. Jones ('09), after a hard battle by scores of 21-15 and 21-8. This is the second time that Masters has won the championship, and as he still has another year at the university he has a good chance to make the belt his permanent property.

Deputy Sheriff Stops the Fight

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 25.—Deputy Sheriff King of Lewis county stopped a fight in the second round of what was to have been a twenty-round contest between Billy Ross and Fred Darboe near Centralia yesterday afternoon. The principals and Referee Kelly were arrested and are held under $200 bonds. A crowd of 200 persons witnessed the contest, which was pulled off in an open field about a mile from the city limits of Centralia.

Olympic Club Tourney Goes Over Into March

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—The athletic committee of the Olympic Club, at a meeting yesterday, decided to postpone the wrestling tournament which was to have taken place on the 26th and 27th of this month. This action was necessary on account of the building operations that are being pushed forward on the Post street building. The tournament will be held early in March, and the wrestling commissioner will endeavor to secure a suitable building in which to hold the contest. A large number of the grapplers are expected to compete.

TRIBUNE'S SPORTING CALENDAR

Frank Mantell and Kid Farmer meet at Marysville Thursday night. Eddie Smith will referee.

West Oakland Club will hold six bouts at their new pavilion at Eighth and Pine streets Thursday evening.

Eddie Kelly of Buffalo and Abe Attell of San Francisco fight before Jack Gleason's club in San Francisco Friday night.

Cap Ferry Stops Twin in a Round

Mike (Twin) Sullivan dropped into "Spider" Kelly's place the other night and began to sing one of his lamentations. Mike had finished the first verse of the song when a commotion arose and drowned the mournful strains of the mebbie mouthed Mike.

"Will yez shut up," roared Mike, "and I'll sing the second round of the song for yez."

"Never mind," yelled back Captain James Montmorency Ferry, "you never reached the second round."

And the captain has been laid up with rheumatism ever since.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Tommy Burns the champion of the world is at Hampstead, where he will remain until he leaves for Dublin, March 12. He is scheduled to wallop Jim Roche at the Irish capitol, March 17.

SUGARMAID EQUALS RECORD IN WINNING FEATURE EVENT

Attempted Coup on Prestige Goes Amiss ---Three Favorites Win For Form Players.

BY LEE DEMIER.

The sporting feature at Williams' Park today will be the running of the Merced handicap for 3-year-olds and upwards, distance one mile. This classic is made up of such fast milers as Roalta 106, Bucolic 102, Massa 102, Janeta 105, and Fantastic 96.

Three clever purse races and three selling affairs comprised of a fair sort of horseflesh, furnished the sport for patrons of Williams Park yesterday afternoon and some keen racing resulted. The talent and bookies broke even, each putting over three winners.

* * *

Severton at 7s was always close up and outgamed Nappa through the stretch, winning the first race by a nod. Sycamore closed well to be third.

* * *

Carmisa, the record-breaker, grew weary when the pinch came, and was lucky to save the show, in the second event, which was for babies. Little Jane was away at a flying start and made a runaway race of it. Righteasy ran right back to her last race and took place money.

* * *

Benvolio forgot to balk today and easily romped home in the mile and one half event. He was well rated by Knapp, who made his move at the right time and galloped away from his field. Confederate, which was held at even money and heavily played by the Keene contingent, could do no better than finish second. Prince of Orange was third.

* * *

Trainer Buxton and his friends made no mistake in the fourth race and showered their money on Sugarmaid. The price went up from 6 to 5 to 8 to 5 at post time and the bulk of the coin went at the latter figure. Cadichon and Timothy Wen were also well played, but were not there at the wire. The winner equaled the California record for a mile and twenty yards and cantered in ahead of Tavora. Barber Royal outgamed the others for the show.

* * *

C. Buxton, owner of Sugarmaid, attempted to make another big coupe on Prestige in the fifth. He wagered $2000 on his horse's chances, but but after showing speed, the son of Previous chucked it in pearly. Gargantua set all the pace and won easily at the end from Standover. Patriotic took the show from Wolfville.

* * *

Smily Corbett was away on his ties in the closing race and ran-canned all the way. Center Shot ran a smart race and easily disposed of Blue Heron for third position.

Carmisa, the record-breaker for three and a half furlongs, had her measure taken by Little Jane in the youngster's race.

THE TRIBUNE was the only paper that gave Severton to win the curtain-raiser. Tom Ryan's brown gelding by The Roman was as good as 10 to 1 during the betting.

* * *

Jimmy Coffey's Nappa was well played straight and place at post time, but was hardly good enough to stall off Severton.

After getting a flying start Herives backed up badly at the end. Owner Matt Ries and his following lost a bunch to the race.

Col. Applegate cleaned up on Right-easy place and show. The Lockford filly fell into the second hole by a good head.

The ones in the know strung their coin on Solus, a youngster from the Hildreth barn. The Teddington colt could never get to the front.

Announcement was made at New York yesterday that Jack Atkin has been declared out of the Brighton handicap.

* * *

J. A. Bennett is selling his horses as fast as possible at Arcadia.

E. J. Baldwin is seriously ill at his home at Arcadia.

Sam Lazarus, the Texas horseman, has turned up at Arcadia.

Boots Durnell is among those that are present at Arcadia.

Jockey Musgrove was handed ten days on the ground at Arcadia yesterday.

The Emeryville contingent was in line when Sugarmaid's number was flashed.

The Buxton bunch won a hat full of coin on the win of Sugarmaid, but they dropped it all, and then some more on Prestige.

* * *

Harry Mack had a good bet on Tavora, straight and place. The little brown mare, who had E. Dugan on her back, had no trouble falling heir to second money.

* * *

The Denver Derby will be worth $2000 this year, so writes Assistant Secretary "Pop" Weaver to Patrol Judge Fred Mulholland.

* * *

Ed Trotter took his on the nose on Rather Royal. The gelding was an easy third.

The dope students went to Cadichon in the fourth race. The Masetto gelding got off fifth but could not improve his position.

* * *

Owner H. G. Bedwell has a very shifty performer in Gargantua. The brown horse broke in front at the rise of the barrier and was never headed.

Standover a place was where the sharpshooters scattered their coin. The Standing gelding ran right where the money was bet.

Owner J. B. Dunn's Patriotic ran a nice race in the mile and a sixteenth affair, finishing an easy third to Wolfville.

Jack Crane and his following strung with Nigrette. The black mare was never in the hunt.

Another hog killing was attempted on Prestige. Trainer Buxton backed the brown horse all over the ring at odds of 3½ to 1.

The followers of Tobe Ramsey's Baker did not get the dough.

Owner Billy Randall took down a nice bet on the win of Benvolio.

Prince of Orange hung on like a bulldog in the mile and a half race and beat out Lone Wolf by a good margin for third money.

The wise set went wrong on Confederate.

* * *

So did the Keenes.

Rhinock was nibbled at to get part of the coin in the third race.

Bose Eley to show was well played by the rail birds. The track was too fast for Eley's underpinning.

Old Fred Anderson, the handicapper, made his re-appearance yesterday.

Charles Rooney, who died in San Francisco the other day, was cremated at the Odd Fellows' Cemetery Sunday. Mr. Rooney was a well-known pioneer sporting man.

Jockey Eddie Dugan left for Arcadia last night.

H. D. Brown (Curly), the man that built City Park racetrack, is in our midst.

Jack Case's luck has returned. The big Emeryville horseman cashed several good bets yesterday.

Bookmaker Louis Allenberg (Klondyke) is here from Arcadia.

I Ham (Hammerschlag) made his appearance in the arena with his crew yesterday. He has been chalking up the odds at Arcadia all winter.

Mannie's Turf Reporter is out for this week.

* * *

W. B. Scroggins of Lexington, Ky., is at Santa Anita Park visiting William Herwick. Colonel Scroggins is a member of the staff of Governor Wilson of Kentucky.

* * *

J. F. Newman and Jr. A. Trammel of Sweetwater, Texas, are recent arrivals at Santa Anita Park. Mr. Newman is visiting his son Burt, who is having a stable, owned jointly by father and son, at the new track and will return home within a fortnight.

The German government is sending the four-year-old stallion, Kevelaer, to German Southwest Africa for stud purposes in that colony. Kevelaer is by the English bred stallion, Joyful-Volosca. Although a winner, Kevelaer was rather disappointing as a race horse.

An honor which may or may not be done has just been conferred upon Charles Todd, the famous English plater of race horses, who has been appointed royal warrant shoesmith and farrier to his majesty. Most people regard a shoeingsmith merely as a blacksmith, part of whose work it is to put on horses' shoes. Mr. Todd is on a different plane. He has passed examinations on the subject of the horse's foot in advance of the majority of the most famous of the veterinary surgeons of the day.

Jockey J. H. Martin, who remained in England this winter instead of coming to this country, has established a time record on the Tobogan slide at Davos Platz. He made the two-mile descent recently going around all of the fifty turns without once upsetting in a second less than five minutes.

* * *

Thomas Vigors, the Irish authority on the thoroughbred, who wrote over the name Ashplant, is dead. It is over twenty years ago that he owned The Baron when that horse started an odds-on favorite for the Derby. He could have sold The Baron for $60,000, but would not. The defeat by Merry Hampton was a disappointment which he never quite got over.

* * *

Ex-Jockey Sam Daggett has turned up at Arcadia.

Frank Dwyer's new Stern "auto" blew up the other day while mountain climbing near Arcadia.

* * *

The Yosemite handicap will be decided Wednesday.

Berkeley Refuses To Rent the Shell

STANFORD, Feb. 25.—Contrary to Manager Snedigar's assurance, California boating men refuse to rent Stanford one of their eight-oared shells for the training of the Cardinal oarsmen. This decision leaves the boating squad here with but one eight in which to train two crews, but both Coach Turner and Captain Gay assert that, although training will now be done under a handicap, Stanford stands ready to row freshman eights.

Turner made the trip to Berkeley yesterday, expecting to make arrangements for the shipping of the shell, but was met by Manager Tyssowski's statement that California boating men would not rent their boat. The Blue and Gold squad has three shells, but is saving one for the day of the regatta.

Seminole Indians Have Long Walk

Turning out in large force last Friday night, the members of the Seminole Club and a few invited guests, about twenty-five in all, enjoyed the pleasure of a moonlight tramp to Dipsea. Arriving on the beach at 4 a. m. an immense bonfire was soon started. Coffee and hot coffee were then served, shortly before daybreak the boys all [illegible] the swimming, which proved great sport. During the day an exciting game of baseball was the main feature, the score being 30 to 8.

On the return trip George Falleby attempted to race the train down Mt. Tamalpais to Mill Valley, but was unsuccessful.

Vallejo Breaks Even in Contests

VALLEJO, Feb. 25.—In the two games played in this city yesterday between the Audotorium Rink five of San Francisco and the Vallejo team for a silver challenge cup both teams won a game. The three deciding games will be played here during the next two weeks.

Business Manager Tribune,
Oakland, Cal.,

Dear Sir:

We wish to commend the Tribune for the prompt response which we have had in return for the advertising which we have done. We are more than satisfied that advertising pays when handled through the medium of an enterprising journal.

On several different occassions we have advertised Saturday Specials and have had unusually large sales, surpassing even our expectations.

Wishing you a well merited success, we remain

Yours truly,

PUT UP $1250 TO PUSH HARBOR LOBBY

Water Front Owners Meet Chamber of Commerce and Decide on Campaign.

A large number of prominent owners along the water front attended a meeting of the harbor committee of the Chamber of Commerce last night and appropriated $1250 for the improvement of the harbor.

Dr. George Pardee stated that he had been confined to his bed by illness during the last two days, but that he thought the meeting of sulh importance that he forced himself to attend.

Frank W. Bilger opened the meeting by saying that there were not enough funds to carry out the plans for the harbor.

Dr. Pardee said: "We want you to assist the rivers and harbors congress in its effort to have the government appropriate $50,000,000 a year.

"Me must also assist the city in maintaining its authority and see to it that the city does not interfere with water front holders with favoritism and watch so that all will keep their hands off Oakland harbor and the water front.

"Oakland should put up $2500, as it takes a good deal of money to keep men in Washington for the purpose of keeping after congress on the rivers and harbors subject."

The following contributions were made: Realty Syndicate, $500; North American Dredging co., $250; Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Co., $250; Hon. George C. Pardee, $100; Thomas H. P. Whitelaw, 50; George D. Gray &Co., $100; E. K. Wood Lumber Co., $150; Steward Gas Engine Co., $50; E. C. Sessions & Co., $50, La Due Wharf and Warehouse Co., $50 Pacific Coast Lumber Co., $50.

SHE PAID $340,000 FOR THIS PEARL NECKLACE

Uncle Sam Claps $110,000 as Duty on Famous String.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—That Mrs. William B. Leeds paid $340,000 in Paris in 1906 for the pearl necklace that has become famous through litigation was brought out in the testimony in the suit in the United States Court of Bernard Citroen to recover $110,000, alleged to have been paid in excess duty on the gems. The testimony of Mrs. Leeds, given before a referee and read in court yesterday, was to the effect that she agreed to pay th French jeweler $340,000 for the necklace when delivered in America. She turned in to him another necklace on which he allowed her $25,000, and the balance was paid in cash. Citroen unstrung the pearls and brought them into America, paying ten per cent duty on a declared value of $220,000. The customs authorities afterwards claimed that the pearls were really a necklace and not loose pearls and as such must pay duty at the rate of 60 per cent. This additional duty was paid under protest and the present suit is brought by Citroen to recover the extra $110,000 so collected. Mrs. Leeds testified that she had seen the pearls exhibited several times in Paris, sometimes as loose pearls and again as a necklace. She wore them in Paris as a necklace.

Citroen's attorneys claim that as they were brought from Paris unstrung, they should not be compelled to pay more than the ten per cent duty which the law imposes on losse pearls, even if they had before been a necklace and were again to form one.

Decision was reserved by Judge Lacombe There were originially thirty-seven pearls in the string and they weigh 985 grains, an averade og 26.62 grains each. The center pearl weighs 58 grains, the first pair 83.18, and the remaining pairs are graduated, each being two or three grains smaller than the preceding one. Six pearls have now been added to the original string.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The opening stock market today showed a dull sagging tendency on a light volume of transactions. A decline in Canadian Pacific of 1¼ and American Smelting and Anaconda of large fractions were the only notable changes.

Room traders sold stocks, finding there was no support of consequence until there was a dozen or more stocks selling at a point or more below yesterday's closing. The Metal group, Union Pacific and Reading were conspicuous in the declines. Business was in slightly larger volume than yesterday, but continued largely confined to a few stocks. American Smelting yielded 2⅛, Missouri and Pacific and L. & N. 1⅜, Erie first preferred 1¼, and Reading, Union Pacific, United States Steel preferred, American Sugar, American Locomotive and Distillers' Securities 1. United States Rubber gained 1¼ and Republic Steel preferred 1.

Selling pressure lightened on the active stocks, but rallies were trivial. Inactive stocks showed some wide declines. Central Railroad of New Jersey fell 1½, Detroit Railway 5, United Railways and Investment 3, Great Northern Ore Certificates 1⅜, Corn Products preferred 1⅜, Mackay Companies 1¼, and Rock Island preferred and Kansas and Texas preferred 1.

Bonds were easy.

The market closed steady and dull. Covering of shorts made a dull demand which hardened prices. Some stocks rallie dto a fraction over last night.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Close.—Money on call easy 1¼@2 per cent, ruling rate 1¾; closing bid 1½; offered 1¾.

Time loans steady, sixty days 3½ to 3¾ per cent; ninety days 4 per cent; 6 months 4 to 4¼ per cent.

Prime percantile, 4½@5 per cent, sterling exchange easier at reaction with actual business in bankers bills at 4.86.80@85 for demand and at 4.83.50@60 for sixty day bills.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Americans started today on the Stock Exchange moderately steady. They then dropped below parity. Offerings failed to find buyers and business was meager. Canadian Pacific was depressed owing to decreased earnings. ater the New York opening failed to relieve the gloom and prices moved narrowly downward. The close was heavy.

TOO VALUABLE HERE.

A woman in a Tennesse town recently gave a "white elephant party," to which each of her eighteen guests was required to "bring something for, which she had no use, but couldn't well dispense with." Eleven of the eighteen brought their husbands. This couldn't possibly happen in California.

OUR NOBILITY.

Peck—Here, what kind of a thimble rigger are you? You told me that beauty you introduced me to was a countess.

Beck—Well, isn't she?

Peck—Naw, I found her today in the cashier's cage at ye basherie.

Beck—That's it, she's a countess all right—a countess of change.

JOY TO CAR HOGS.

New York traction companies will run special cars for women during the rush hours. Thus will the long-suffering men escape many hard knocks and bitter punches.

NICE WITH APPLE SAUCE.

Some nice women in New York resolved to give a show for charity. They chose a living picture entertainment.

In order not to be too formal, they trimmed a word and playfully wrote on the program: "Mrs. Brown, Jones and Smith and Misses Van Renselaer and De Vere a Living Pics." Now, what do you think? A terrible printer man spelled Pics, with a "g."

SOCIETY ANTICIPATING BIG VAUDEVILLE SHOW

MISS MOLLY MATHES, WHO WILL TAKE PART IN SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE FOR CHARITY.

"Stunts" Galore Billed on Program

The society vaudeville Monday evening for the benefit of Fabiola hospital is one of the most important dates among the events of early March. The affair will be held at the Ye Liberty Playhouse and the proceeds will go toward the endowment of free beds for sick and crippled children at the hospital.

Among those from San Francisco who will contribute clever numbers to an already attractive program are McKenzie Gordon, Billy Hopkins and Charles Dickman. A score of talented men and women in local society will lend their aid in charming sketches, monologues and musical hits. The program has been carefully prepared by a committee skilled in pleasing their society patrons and rehearsals are going on every day.

Those in charge of the affair are very enthusiastic and a number of box parties are being planned for the evening. The best seats are going rapidly and the benefit promises to be the most successful ever given for Fabiola.

The Program.

The complete program is as follows:

Overture. (a) "Burmah Girl," sung by Vail Bakewell, assisted by Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Ruth Houghton, Miss Florence Henshaw, Mrs. Louis Mac Dermot, Miss Mollie Mathes, Joseph Rosborough, Lawrence Ertz, Coleridge Ertz, Melvin Jeffress, Frederick Samuels.

(b) "I Want To Be Your Wife," sung by Mrs. Beach Soule, assisted by the above chorus. "Toodles," a play written especially for this occasion by George Friend of Ye Liberty Playhouse By permision of Mr. H. W. Bishop. Cast of characters: John Van Buren, a man of dissipated habits, Willard Barton, Jr; Toodles, his six year old daughter, Shirley Hamilton; James, the butler, George Friend. Scene, Library of Van Buren house. Time, 9 p. m. Produced under the personal direction of Mr. Friend.

The Famous Neapolitan Street Singers. In the opinion of critics positively the finest act in vaudeville. For this number the Orchestra is under the direction of Arthur Weiss.

The Ventriloquist Act, as performed at the Christmas jinks of the Bohemian Club. Willard T. Barton Sr., assisted by John Leighton, George Walker, C. B. Sloan, William H. Smith Jr., Roy Folger and Alec Rosborough.

Many a Laugh.

(a) "Little Miss Wooden Shoes," sung by Miss Edna Orr, Miss Katherine Kutz, Ralph McCormick, George McDougald.

(b) "Little Pink Petty From Peter," from Miss Hook of Holland. Sung by Mrs. Beach Soule, assisted by the above.

(c) "Put Me Among the Girls," from the Hoyden. Sung by Willard Barton Jr., assisted by Miss Brown, Miss Houghton, Miss Henshaw, Mrs. Mac Dermot, Miss Mathes, Mr. Rosborough, Mr. Ertz, Mr. L. Ertz, Mr. Jeffress, Mr. Samuels.

A few minutes with Milton Schwartz and Coman Schwartz.

"How'd You Like to Spoon With Me" sung by Mrs. Beach Soule, assisted by Miss Kutz, Miss Orr, Miss Brown, Miss Houghton, Miss Henshaw, Mac Dougald, McCormick, Barton, Mac Dougald, McCormick, Barton, Rosborough, Ertz, L. Ertz, Jeffress, Samuels.

Tickets at $1.00 and 50 cents are on sale at Kohler and Chase's and at Eliason's.

CRITIC OF COOPER PLEADS BEFORE JUDGE

Attorney Hutchinson, Who Attacked Appellate Court Decision, Appears in Jurist's Court.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. — More than ordinary attention was evidenced in the proceedings of the Appellate court this morning and this interest was displayed by the presence of a larger attendance than usual of attorneys at the sessions of this tribunal.

The impelling motive of the turnout was the desire to see pleading at the bar Attorney Joseph Hutchinson, of Palo Alto, who, not long ago, attracted attention to himself by writing to Judge Cooper of the court in question, an open letter, in which he criticized the reason, the law and, to a certain degree, the motives of the members of the tribunal in reversing the judgment of Judge Dunne of the Superior court in the case of ex-Mayor Schmitz on the charge of bribery, and at the same time, declaring invalid the indictment.

The letters caused wide discussion, members of the bar dissenting from the views expressed in the Hutchinson criticism and sustaining the reasoning of and decision of the court.

Of course, none of the spectator attorneys today expected to see anything serous result from the coming together of the critical attorney and the objects of his criticism, but they thought it would be of interest to note the demeanor of both parties.

When the case was called Hutchinson answered ready for the plaintiff and City Attorney McElroy of Oakland, who had as associate, Attorney Colvin of the same place, answered for the defendant. The case was that of Farhum vs. Tanner, involving a dispute over a mechanic's lien.

Hutchinson was the first to argue but, when he assumed the floor, there was nothing on the faces of the judges to indicate that they had ever seen the practitioner before, much less to have been the victims of his unwarranted attack. Hutchinson, however, was somewhat perturbed and it was apparent that he was at times, ill at ease. The argument was continued into the afternoon and the decision of the court will be awaited with no small amount of interest.

'BABY' JOHN IS ON WAY TO OAKLAND IN CUSTODY

Officers Want Boy to Point Out Location of the Dynamite.

According to telegraphic advices from Weaverville, the examination of "Baby John" Martin and Mrs. John Martin by Deputy District Attorney Donahue and Detective Hodgkins has been completed and the officials left Weaverville with "Baby John" this morning for Oakland, and are expected to arrive here tomorrow before noon. District Attorney Hall of Trinity county will accompany them on the trip.

One of the purposes of bringing "Baby John" to Oakland is to have him point out, if possible, the hiding place of a number of sticks of dynamite which he claims Mrs. Martin had secured for the purpose of wreaking vengeance on people against whom she entertained many alleged grievances. It is understood that the finding of the explosives in question which "Baby John" says he stowed away at the order of Mrs. Martin, is all that the officers require for the purpose of corroborating all of the stories told by the boy with references to his cruel treatment by Mrs. Martin, the domination she exercised over him and the plotting in which she indulged for the destruction of both Judges Ogden and Samuels.

High School Paper Guys Students and Faculty and Emits Leap Year Howls.

After sharpening its claws, the "Tom Cat" is ready to make its appearance before the students of the Oakland High School next Thursday.

The paper is overflowing with jokes on the students and faculty. As this is a leap year number, many quips on the girls of the school may be expected.

$5000 ON ROOSEVELT, SAYS SENATOR BOURNE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. -- Senator Elkins of West Virginia, and Senator Bourne of Oregon met in the White House yesterday. Both are millionaires. Senator Bourne is a firm believer that President Roosevelt will get another term.

"The President will not be renominated," said Senator Elkins to Senator Bourne. "There is no use of you wasting any more time in that direction."

"He will be nominated," Senator Bourne said emphatically.

"He will not," responded Senator Elkins.

"I will bet you $5000 that Roosevelt will be named by the Chicago convention," rejoined Mr. Bourne.

"I will not bet," replied Senator Elkins, "but," he added, "If I thought you had that amount of money on you I would throw you down and take it away from you."

COURT REFUSES TO TAKE ADVICE OF SPIRIT

Woman Who Said Dead Son Told Her to Get Divorce Is Unsuccessful.

Judge Harris has refused to grant a divorce to Mrs. Lucinda Bentzen, who testified that the spirit of her dead son had appeared to her and advised her to get a separation from her husband.

"Mama, dear, go home to your mother or you will never get well," Mrs. Bentzen said her boy's spirit had told her.

The suit was brought on the ground of extreme cruelty. Mrs. Bentzen said that her husband made faces at her, nagged her and complained about her poor health.

The husband, Walter R. Bentzen, testified that he had made every effort to assist his wife back to health and had not been cruel to her.

F. B. Chesrown has begun suit for divorce against Violet Chesrown. He charged that she had received attentions from other men and had been taken to dinner on several occasions against his will.

Suits for divorce based on desertion have been filed by Irene A. Hisken against Martin Hisken and by George B. Cannon against Carrie A. Cannon.

Similar proceedings have been filed by John T. Harriman against Lottie Harriman.

Interlocutory decrees based on charges of desertion were awarded Martha Frouse from Harris M. Prouse and to Boyd Shartzen from Sparrel M. Shartzen. Grace Estelle Strong received an interlocutory decree from Edward William Strong for extreme cruelty.

EVENTFUL LIFE OF MRS. M. WALSH IS CLOSED

Mother of Attorney Phil Walsh Dies From Attack of Pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Walsh, wife of the late Maurice Walsh and mother of Attorney Philip M. Walsh, died this morning at her home, 1563 Seventh street. Death was due to an attack of pneumonia which confined her to her bed for the past six weeks, where Dr. Kane and Dr. Buteau were constantly in attendance.

At the bedside of the decedent this morning were Philip M. Walsh and Miss Mabel Walsh.

Mrs. Walsh celebrated her seventy-first birthday last December. Mrs. Walsh has been a resident of Oakland for the past thirty-four years. Mrs. Walsh arrived in California in 1855. For many years she had been prominently identified with St. Patrick's Church and took active part in alleviating the suffering of the distressed and needy ones of the parish, where she was beloved by all.

Born in Ireland.

Mrs. Walsh was born in Ireland, County Carlin, in 1837. She was the daughter of Philip Riley of Ireland the eldest of five children.

Mrs. Walsh was the mother of seven children, three of whom survive her. They are Philip M. Walsh, William N. Walsh and Mrs. Mabel F. Walsh. She left grandchildren in New York and a sister, Miss Margaret Riley of San Francisco.

The domestic life of Mrs. Walsh was marked by simplicity and the fondness for her children was one of her strong characteristics. She was devoted to her near and dear ones, upon whom she bestowed her affection. She was a most estimable woman who was admired by all who knew her.

The funeral of Mrs. Walsh will be held from St. Patricks' Church Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, when a high requiem mass will be said for the repose of her soul. She will be buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

THAW SAID TO BE HOPELESSLY INSANE

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—According to reports received here Harry Kendall Thaw is believed to be hopelessly insane. It is declared that alienists who have examined and observed him since he was committed to Matteawan criminal insane asylum are convinced that he is a paranoiac. As paranoia is a progressive disease it would appear that nothing short of a miracle can intervene to secure his freedom.

Shoots Two and Places Head on Rail

LAMAR, Mo., Feb. 25.—L. E. Hart, a coal hauler, here last night shot and killed Mrs. Joseph E. Edwards, his mother-in-law; shot and seriously wounded the latter's husband, and then committed suicide by lying across the track and letting the St. Louis fast express run over his body. Hart first fired two shots at his wife, following a family quarrel, but she escaped with a slight flesh wound.

Stoessel Asks Czar For Full Pardon

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 25.—Lieutenant General Stoessel who on February 20 was condemned to death for the surrender of the Port Arthur fortress to the Japanese has petitioned Emperor Nicholas for a full pardon. The court recommended that the death sentence be commuted to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress and that the General be excluded from the service.
